

there are the land claims court judges to be selected and the new circuit judges and various smaller matters that may tend to swell the amount of work. There is always something for the President to do—indeed, plenty to do. If he can go he will go, and if he cannot he will not. That is all. I would hesitate to predict what he will be able to do.

Interior Department Dissensions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—The relations which exist between the Secretary of the Interior and Gen. Morgan, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, have been much commented upon recently in a quiet way. They are both men of positive character, and Gen. Morgan has been the subject of a great deal of criticism ever since he has been at the head of the Indian Bureau. His confirmation was hotly contested in the Senate, the opposition being principally provoked by his position in regard to Indian schools, the Catholics considering that he was opposed to the work that they were carrying on among the Indians. The Secretary and Gen. Morgan stood together in their opposition to the proposed substitution of military for civilian agents in the Sioux country. They parted, however, on the question of allowing the Indians to connect themselves with Wild West shows. The Secretary recently authorized Buffalo Bill to make contracts with Indians to go with his show, and the Commissioner, overruled, was obliged to direct that the order of his superior officer should be carried into effect. A new question has arisen which may result in a controversy between these officials. Acting on the recommendation of the Agent at Green Bay, Wis., the Commissioner recently directed the removal of the Catholic Sisters in charge of the Indian school at that agency. A protest was made on the part of the Secretary, alleging that the change would make a bad thing worse, the prejudice of Gen. Morgan. On the other hand, it is claimed that the management of the school was inefficient, that the sister in charge was away from the school a great deal of the time and that the work of the school was neglected. The Secretary has written to the agent asking for his reasons for recommending this change and pending the arrival of his answer nothing further will be done. There are other particulars in which the Secretary and the Commissioner have and are likely to go in opposite directions, but it is not thought now that their differences will result in the severance of the existing official relations. While these disagreements that occur between Secretary Noble and his bureau chiefs are made prominent in the talk that is heard relative to the former's probable retirement from the Interior Department, yet the statement is occasionally heard that his land decisions are not regarded with favor by the President for the alleged reason that they have too decided a leaning in favor of railroads and corporations.

Keeping Gold in the Country.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—The New York financial men, "said J. H. Prall of the banking firm of J. H. Prall & Co., "indorse the action of the Treasury Department in its efforts to keep gold in this country. The European nations obstruct the export of gold and ought to do the same. You know that England has just passed through a season of great financial depression and she has not yet finally recovered. Her money stringency led to the sale in this country of an unusually large amount of English investment securities and this gold is now going back to pay for these securities. Our own financial condition is greatly improved. The bank statement last Saturday showed that the New York banks had on hand over $9,000,000 above the reserve legally required. A year ago they had only $1,000,000. This means that the banks have over $8,000,000, which they are ready and willing to loan on good security and money plentiful at 5 per cent on annual loans."

Mr. Prall's partner is a brother of Third Vice-President Webb of the New York Central Railroad.

Candidates for Speaker.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—Congressman Allen Durborrow of Chicago, who is here, in talking of the speakership of the next Congress said: "I read Senator Hampton's remarks on the speakership contest with great pleasure. I heartily agree with him that a Northern Democrat ought to be elected Speaker. Our delegation of fourteen Democrats has not yet taken any formal action, but I feel sure that we will be solid for Mr. Springer. Personally I shall vote for Mr. Springer's election. I have the strongest feeling, though, for Mr. Bynum, growing out of college days together, when Mr. Outwater, whom I met at Columbia, impressed me very favorably. There will be no trouble about finding a good Northern Democrat." "But do you think the Northern Democrats will rock on one side and the Southern on the other?" "No, no. On the contrary, I think Judge Crisp will get some New England votes and Mr. Mills is almost certain to have some strength in the Northwest. Northern candidates will also get Southern votes, but I really think that it would be best for the party if a Northern man was elected."

Personal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—Col. Morrow, Executive Clerk of the Senate, will return to his home in Johnson County, Mo., about April 1st. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Morrow and daughter. Senator Yeaworth of New York, who is in the city, is expected to leave for his home in New York. Senator Cockrell and his interesting family will return to Missouri next month. Edward Wade, a brother to Congressman Wade of Missouri, and an employee in the Agricultural Department here, is very ill at his boarding place in this city. Gen. Spaulding's condition is said to have changed to-day in for the better. He has been constant attendance at the hotel at his husband's bedside. The statesman is 71 years of age, which is some disadvantage to him in fighting sickness, although his rugged constitution is a point in his favor.

Department Matters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—The following are among the changes announced to-day in the clerical part of the War Department: Henry K. White of Wisconsin, Edwin S. Bethel of Illinois, Frederick C. Rutledge of Pennsylvania, Bert A. Johnson of Iowa, Wm. D. Brand of Missouri, and Louis W. Riley of Ohio, appointed clerks ($1,000) in the Record and Pension Division. John A. Leachman of Illinois, Jeremiah Daley of Pennsylvania, Benj. Smith of Kentucky and Joseph J. Carpenter of Ohio, appointed copyists ($800) in the Record and Pension Division. Nathaniel E. Taylor, promoted from copyist to Signal Officer. Charles L. Patton of Maine, Class 1 Record and Pension Division, resigned. Marion C. Lamb of New Jersey, copyist ($800) Record and Pension Division, resigned. It was stated at the Post-office Department to-day that some time in April a test case will be made in the upper court of the law against the Louisiana and other lotteries.

Ohio Politics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—"It is not improbable that public sentiment may produce a novelty in Ohio politics," said ex-Representative Thompson of Ohio to-day. "Just now the State is considering a well-developed opposition to have candidates for the senatorship appear before the State Convention, just as do candidates for the nomination, which are generally made by the convention. Many of the Ohio newspapers are agitating the matter. Gov. Foraker, in a recent interview, favors the idea. The result of the campaign is a foregone conclusion. The friends of Senator Sherman will win his re-election and succeed. Gov. Foraker may possibly be a candidate and there be other Ohioans who could be persuaded to accept the nomination. Should the plan I have spoken of be approved by the State Central Committee there will be more superheated politics to the square inch in Ohio for the months to come than we have had there for years past. The proposition is a decided step in the direction of Senatorial election by the people."

"Will the innovation bring about a change in anybody's prospects?" "No matter whether the new plan is adopted or not Sherman will succeed himself."

"Why?" "Because the people of Ohio favor him and believe in him, and cannot find a better man. Mr. Sherman has a very strong hold on the people of Ohio."

"Has Gov. Foraker announced himself as a candidate?" "No, not yet, but it is assumed by many that he will. I cannot speak for him. Sherman will be elected."

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—While it looks like ex-Congressman Payson of Illinois might succeed to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, there is a strong influence at work to have Gen. Stone, the Assistant and Acting Commissioner, promoted to the vacancy. Mr. Payson has given it out that he will reside in Washington for the future, which has made many believe that he has some assurances of the place from the powers that be. Gen. Stone is from Iowa and has been considered as the most competent officer in that branch of the service since the Republican Administration went into power.

Senator Payson and the Congressional member of his staff from Kansas have been swinging around the Alliance circle of the capital and Maryland since Congress adjourned attempting to gather support for the new party. To-morrow (Sunday) evening Senator Payson will address the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District at the Congressional Church. The prohibition of the liquor traffic will be discussed.

It is now the intention of Miss Mary Desha, who retired as secretary and a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, to organize a new institution of the kind, and one of the first articles in the constitution will prohibit colored persons becoming members of the same.

OBITUARY.

Death Visits the Family of Rev. Sam Jones.—Mortuary Matters.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 21.—A telegram received here announces the death of Mrs. Mary Mays, the oldest daughter of Rev. Sam Jones, the noted evangelist, at Cartersville, Ga., about noon to-day. Mrs. Mays leaves a little girl a few days old, and her birth was the cause of her death. Mr. Jones is reported to be overwhelmed with grief, as she was his favorite daughter. Miss Ella Hough, a very prominent and talented young lady, suddenly died of scarlet fever at her home in this city this afternoon.

Boston, Mass., March 21.—Levi Wade, president of the Mexican Central Railroad and a director in the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe, died here to-day.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 21.—Prof. John B. Brigham, who has just died here, aged 67, was a prominent educator and one of the pioneers in educational matters in this city. He was active in abolition matters and taught in public schools here for twenty-five years. He was a graduate of Hamilton College.

BONNE TERRE, Mo., March 21.—Marshall Ronney, one of the oldest residents of this county, aged 78 years, and the first postmaster of the Bonne Terre Post-office, which was established many years before the building of the town, to which it afterward gave its name, died at his home near here this week.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., March 21.—J. J. Danford, a grain dealer at Owanesco, in this county, died very suddenly yesterday of apoplexy.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., March 21.—Richard Bourne, Sr., died at his home in this city at 10 o'clock last night of pneumonia, aged 78 years.

SUSIE'S SIX HUNDRED.

A Delaware Girl's Astonishing Physical Development.

BLACK BIRD, Del., March 21.—Miss Susan Jones of this place is in many respects a remarkable young lady. She is 17 years old and weighs over 600 pounds. She is 5 feet 11 inches high and is believed to be still growing. Although her father is a six-footer her mother is below the medium height. The item of shoe leather is a grave matter in the Jones family, as Miss Susie's shoes cost from $5 to $10 for ordinary wear. The young woman is well proportioned, bright and intelligent, and she has refused numerous offers to exhibit in museums. At present she is struggling to reduce her flesh, but she seems to "grow fat" on it.

EAST ST. LOUIS POLITICS.

Nominations for Municipal Officers Made at a Citizens' Meeting.

EAST ST. LOUIS, March 21.—The citizens' party held a meeting at the City Hall to-night for the purpose of nominating candidates for Treasurer, City Clerk and City Attorney. There were several names submitted, but Philip Wolf was finally chosen to represent the ticket as Treasurer. C. B. Carroll for City Attorney and Ed C. Bennett for City Clerk. The meeting was addressed by Mayor Stephens and presided over by Dr. Bates. Dr. Wilhelm acted as secretary.

Lower Mississippi Floods.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21.—The break at Ames, just above here, is still widening. The destruction of the telegraph system half a mile back of the river is being repaired.

Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney

DRY GOODS CO.
Departments Worthy of Inspection CONTAINING

Goods That Should Be Seen.
SHOWING MONDAY.

Special prices on the following lot
KID GLOVES:

Genuine Foster, Paul & Co.'s Best Grade Suede Glove, slightly defective in finish, but wear or appearance not affected, otherwise these are $1.75
and $2 Goods;
we will close out what remains of our original purchase of 350 dozen
AT 95 CENTS PER PAIR.

Great Job in MEN'S GLOVES.
On sale, 120 dozen Superior Quality PIQUE DRIVING AND STREET GLOVES, manufactured by Foster, Paul & Co.
at about half regular value.
No glove of such value has yet been sold at our price,
$1.15 PER PAIR.

Full assortment colors and sizes.

Muslin and Silk Underwear.

OPENING MONDAY

of Latest Novelties in

LADIES' SILK WEAR,

LAWN AND CAMBRIC WEAR,

choice and elegant variety;

Also, Special Line WASH WRAPPERS,

very reasonable.

INFANTS' GOODS, including all the choicest novelties in

Plain and Hand-Embroidered

Goods. Beautiful line Sacques, Shawls, Baskies and Carriages.

Special Features in Novelties

not before shown.

Infants' White and Fancy Gingham

Dresses and Gumps.

EXHIBITION MONDAY

of our entire line

IMPORTED CORSETS.

Our Own Special Brand,

"LA COURONNE," the best-fitting Corset manufactured.

FIRST SEASON OPENING

SPRING PARASOLS.

We Show Monday

all the New Features introduced by Foreign and Home Manufacturers. We desire an inspection of these choice and novel goods.

EMBROIDERY DEPT.,
CONFIRMATION DRESSES.

Large import order of 45-inch Embroidered Skirtings, specially adapted for CONFIRMATION DRESSES,
in small figures and blocked patterns, are by far the most chaste styles shown for the purpose.
Prices within the reach of all,
commencing at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50,
up to $5.00 per yard.

HOSIERY
AND UNDERWEAR GARMENTS.

Great Shipment just received, including immense line of YPSILANTI GOODS
for Ladies and Children.
Silks, Lisle and Balbriggan in Equestrian Tights,
both ankle and knee lengths.
Union Suits for Ladies and Children that are perfect in fit and comfort.

200 dozen
LADIES' BLACK COTTON HOSE, the best of famous brands of fast black.
We offer them for 25 CENTS a pair, and guarantee them equal to anything
sold in the city for 35c.

75 dozen
LADIES' PURE SILK HOSE, Genuine French Make.
This quality usually sells for $3.50 a pair.
We offer them to you for $2.50.

All new colors, such as Lettuce, Dahlia, Copper, Assorted
Tans, Assorted Slipper Bronze, Assorted
Slipper Grays, Lemon,
Electric, etc.

SPANISH COURT CREAM,
The most effective known curative and preventive for the complexion;
price, 50 CENTS JAR.

SPANISH COURT FACE POWDER, Best Known Toilet Powder,
25 CENTS BOX.

Opening of Millinery

Tuesday and Wednesday,
Of our Choicest Selections of Imported Eastern and Own Productions.

We cordially invite our patrons and the public generally,
and extend to all such a welcome.

THE CASUALTY RECORD.

A ST. PAUL LADY KILLED BY THE FALL OF A HUGE ICE.

The Galena's Condition—Lower Mississippi Floods—Costly Green-Houses Burned—Engineer and Fireman Killed
—A Joker's Tragic End.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 21.—An appalling accident occurred at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce building, corner of Robert and Sixth streets. A hundred people saw a huge icicle fall from the eaves of the north side of the building just as a young woman turned into Sixth street. Half a dozen men sought to her to look out, but they were too late. The mass of ice struck her squarely on the top of the head, fracturing the skull in five places. She died at St.
Joseph's Hospital ten minutes later and was recovered to McCarthy & Donnelly's undertaking establishment.

She was identified this evening by Harris
Herbert of Carroll street as his wife. Investigation shows that a man was chopping ice from the roof of the building as Mrs. Herbert was passing. The structure is owned by the Chamber of Commerce association, composed of 800 leading St. Paul citizens, who will be asked to pay $10,000 damages.

A Train That Arrived "On Time."

FIRE BRUFF, Ark., March 21.—Fire broke out to-day at Bison, Cleveland County, consuming the lumber mill and lumber of H. C.
Miller, loss $2,000. Just as the fire began Conductor Merriam of the Cotton Belt arrived with a freight train. Observing a number of freight cars on a side track in danger of being consumed, he had the engine uncoupled from his train and attached to the cars and hauled all away, but not without some damage to several cars, which caught fire. It was a narrow escape, as had not the conductor been there to take the cars away many would have been burned.

The Galena's Condition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—In an official report to the Department, Commander Bicknell, who commanded the Galena, says that the Galena does not seem to open any more.
He says some water flows from the ship as the tide falls. The berth deck was flooded and the aft fore hold is full of water. A beach watch has been maintained to collect anything of value washed ashore.
Commander Bicknell says he does not think any further assistance is needed, but if he had a diver he might satisfy a doubt whether the ship had been crowded over her anchor by his intention, he says, on the date of the report, March 17, to take both vessels to Vineyard Haven as soon as possible.

The Nina will lose her rudder only and perhaps have some pipes broken or burst by freezing water. He says that on March 15, he caused the mainmast to fall, and it and the mainyard were broken. He adds that if the ship holds together the delay in getting the Galena started will result in bringing her off more easily and safely.

Died of a Broken Heart.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 21.—W. Houghtal-ing, aged 66, the conductor of the train which was wrecked on the Lake Shore road at East Hamburg last April, in which several lives were lost, and who was indicted for manslaughter connection therewith, but was acquitted, died at his home in this city today.

Mr. Houghtaling was one of the best known men in the section and was held in high esteem by the Lake Shore officials previous to the accident. The terrible affair and his subsequent indictment preyed on his mind to such an extent that his friends say he died of a broken heart.

A Calamitous Runaway.

WICHITA, Kan., March 21.—As a farmer named Ray Handlin and his wife of the eastern part of Kingman County were driving home this morning with a cultivator hitched behind the wagon, the horses bolted and finally threw out the occupants of the wagon.
Mr. Handlin escaped with a broken arm, but his wife was killed. The cultivator became tangled in the teeth of the cultivator, and he was dragged over the rough road for quite a distance. When finally rescued he was found to have received such injuries that he died shortly afterwards.

Steamers Overdue.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 21.—Reports have been circulated in this city to-day that disasters had befallen two of the New Haven Line steamboats. The reports are founded on the fact that the steamers have been missing since Thursday. One of the Star Line steamboats is also overdue. The agents of both lines in this city are not in the least alarmed. They say that the steamboats are probably anchored in some harbor awaiting the abatement of the storm.

A Joker's Tragic End.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 21.—A special to the News from Suspension, Bullock County, Ga., says Hannah Dennis last night shot with a double-barreled gun and almost instantly killed her brother-in-law, Manuel

Dennis, who was attempting to force an entrance into her house under disguise. He was trying to frighten her, so he claimed before he died, when she fired a buck shot into his head.

Tramps Killed in a Wreck.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 21.—Seven miles south of Memphis this afternoon a Newport News & Mississippi Valley freight train was wrecked by running over an ox. Eleven cars, mostly empty, were dished and a tramp and a negro bootblack, who were stealing a ride, were killed. Eight other tramps in another car escaped unhurt. Papers found on the dead tramp's person indicate that his name was Lohers and that his home was in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Waves Gave Up Their Dead.

READING, Pa., March 21.—The Schuylkill River was five feet above low water mark shortly after noon to-day. This is due to the heavy rain fall of the past twenty-four hours.
Wm. Strickler's body was found to-day in the Tulpehocken Creek. He had been missing for nearly two months.

Killed by His Brother.

WICHITA, Kan., March 21.—John Hohn was accidentally shot and killed by his brother, Henry, near Fond Creek, I. T., to-day.
Henry had just picked up a gun to shoot at a bird, when it was somehow discharged and the contents lodged in his brother's breast, killing him instantly.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 21.—The northbound train on the River division of the Louisville, New Orleans & Texas Railroad left the track a mile above Rosedale, overturning the engine and front cars, killing the engineer and fireman and seriously wounding the baggage-master. No passengers were killed.

A Lineman Fatally Shocked.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 21.—This afternoon
Alex Hurst, a line repairer, while repairing the wires of the electric light company, fell across a circuit and before assistance could reach him he was dead. While he hung suspended across the wires, a blue flame burning into the flesh, he presented a ghastly spectacle.

An Unintended Target.

OMAHA, Neb., March 21.—While out duck hunting at Florence Lake this morning James Whitely of Council Bluffs accidentally shot William Marlow of the same place. It is thought Marlow will recover.

Threatened With Foundation.

OTTUMWA, Mo., March 21.—The Des Moines
River here is the highest known for four

"This Invitation Is Extended to You."

You are cordially invited
To-morrow, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., to our Easter Opening of Solid Silver and Cut Glass.
Mermod & Jaccard Jewelry Co.,
Cor. Broadway & Locust.

The richness of this magnificent display of Reposse Silver Wares and Fine Cuttings in Glass will amaze you.

UNSURPASSED & UNEQUALLED

Are the Bargains we offer this week.

All Patterns we have only one or two rooms of will go at a positive sacrifice. We have a large variety in this way of Moquette 6-4 and 3-4 Wilton Velvets. Body Brussel, Tapestry Brussel and Ingrain Carpets, also Lino-leums, regardless of value.

Bring the Size of Rooms.

We also announce our Spring Stock of Carpetings and Curtains now complete in styles and variety Unsurpassed, Unequalled
west of the Mississippi.

K. & K.

AWARDED HIGHEST PRIZE
PARIS EXPOSITION
EX 1889
SCHOLTEN
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
OPPOSITE PHOTOGRAPHY
1312 1314
EXPOSITION OLIVE ST.

Knaupp & Kramer,
615 and 617 North Broadway,
Between Washington and Lucas Avenues.

years. The ice to-day tore away fifty feet of the approach to the wagon bridge, practically cutting off communication with the south side of Eddyville. The town is threatened with total inundation.

Thrown From a Train and Killed.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 21.—Mr. Williams, a prominent business man of Boston, was thrown from the platform of the "Boston Flyer" on the Poughkeepsie Bridge Railroad a few miles west of Deckertown this afternoon and instantly killed.

The Walking Match.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The score at the close of the walking match was: Hughes, 86 miles, 2 laps; Bennett, 640 miles, 4 laps;
Moore, 289 miles, 1 lap; Hergelman, 695 miles, 5 laps; Herty, 625 miles, 5 laps; Noremans, 523 miles; Peach, 800 miles.

Financially Embarrassed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 21.—The outlook for the creditors of the private banking firm of Theodore Schwartz & Co. grows worse daily.
The bank was founded in 1841, and had the confidence of small depositors. It paid interest on deposits. For two years it has been in straits and has made desperate efforts to pull out. These efforts included speculation in tobacco through the branch concern, the Union Tobacco Co., and in this way they lost very heavily. They recently turned over to Louisville, Ky., their creditor, eighty hogheads of dark tobacco bought two years ago, and now probably worthless. The statement to-night is liabilities $200,000, of which $90,000 is to small depositors. Assets $75,000 and involved in litigation. Much real estate has recently been turned over to large creditors, and suits have been filed to have these transfers declared fraudulent and the property divided for the benefit of all the creditors. Scores of comparatively poor people have lost their life in the wreck.

Used a Poker.

John Smith was foolish enough to fight with Lizzie Johnson and Susan Davis, two of the most desperate colored women known to the police. The battle took place at 6th Clark avenue about 10 o'clock last night, and Smith was beaten over the head with an iron poker.
Dr. Jordan dressed two serious wounds on the man's head, and the three were locked up at the Four Courts charged with disturbing the peace.

100,000 Head of Cattle.

GAFFERSVILLE, Tex., March 21.—One hundred thousand head of cattle are being shipped over the Santa Fe, through this city, from the Athens country and other portions of Northwestern Texas, to the Indian Territory, where they will be kept on the range until next fall.

It Was a Fiasco.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The greatest fiasco of a six-day pedestrian race ever held in this city ended to-night shortly after 10 o'clock.
Hughes carried off the honors. He covered 86 miles, leading his nearest opponent by eighteen miles. During the week he had less rest than any other man in the race ex-

St. Louis Post-Dispatch

PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.

JOSEPH PULTZ, President.

TERMS OF THE PAPER.

One year, in advance, $10.00

Six months, in advance, $6.00

Three months, in advance, $3.50

By the week (delivered by carrier), 15

By the month (delivered by carrier), 50

Sunday edition, by mail, per year, 2.00

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH, 515 Olive st.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-office, St. Louis, Mo., as Second-class matter.

DOMESTIC. Per Copy

Eight to sixteen pages, 1 Cent

Eighteen to thirty-two pages, 2 Cents

FOREIGN. Per Copy

Daily (8 pages), 5 Cents

Sundays (16 pages), 10 Cents

Telephone Numbers.

Editorial Rooms, 285

Business Office, 285

London Office, 62, Cockspur Street, Charing Cross

New York Bureau, Room 86, Pulitzer Building, Max H. Fischer, Manager.

The Sunday Post-Dispatch.

Its Circulation Year by Year.

1888.....1,434,070 Copies

Average, 27,088.

1889.....1,666,081 Copies

Average, 29,905.

1890.....2,306,654 Copies

Average, 44,358.

THIRTY-TWO PAGES.

SUNDAY, MARCH 22, 1891.

Weather forecast for to-day for Missouri: Generally fair; warmer; north-west winds.

CONTENTS OF TO-DAY'S PAPER.

PAGE 1—Cracked Crows—Parnell and the Irish

PAGE 2—The London Theatre—Fondling of the

PAGE 3—The London Theatre—Fondling of the

PAGE 4—The London Theatre—Fondling of the

PAGE 5—WASHINGTON NEWS—Death in Rev.

PAGE 6—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 7—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 8—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 9—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 10—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 11—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 12—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 13—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 14—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 15—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 16—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 17—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 18—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 19—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 20—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 21—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 22—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 23—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 24—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 25—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 26—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 27—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 28—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 29—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 30—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 31—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 32—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 33—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 34—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 35—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 36—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 37—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 38—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 39—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 40—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 41—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 42—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 43—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 44—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 45—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 46—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 47—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 48—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 49—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 50—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 51—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 52—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 53—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 54—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 55—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 56—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 57—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 58—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 59—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 60—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 61—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 62—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 63—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 64—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 65—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 66—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 67—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 68—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 69—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 70—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 71—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 72—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 73—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 74—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 75—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 76—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 77—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 78—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 79—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 80—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 81—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 82—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 83—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 84—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 85—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 86—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 87—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 88—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 89—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 90—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 91—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 92—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 93—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 94—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 95—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 96—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 97—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 98—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 99—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

PAGE 100—RECORDS AT WORK—Deaths in Michi-

FARMER INGALLS will give himself away if he does not quit talking and attend to his spring plowing.

THE three Council tickets now in the field are the Republican, the Independent Municipal and the Noonan ticket.

It may be put down as a certainty that the Mayor did not gain the acquiescence of the other bosses in his plans for nothing.

This promise of the Mayor to keep his hands off of the Council nominations was another of his pie-crust promises made only to be broken.

ONE of the principal questions which will be decided at the April election is whether St. Louis shall become Mayor NOONAN's political farm.

AS an exhibition of groveling sycophancy to one-man power in politics the local Democratic convention is without a parallel in this boss-ridden city.

THE Governor's signature to the Underwood wage-payment bill would be worth all the aid the mining corporations could give him in a political way.

THERE is no reasonable doubt that Mr. PARNELL will appeal to his constituents for vindication when the dissolution of Parliament compels him to seek re-election or to retire.

JASPER BURKS, as the plant tool of the corporations in the State Senate, is not a surprise to the people of the State. THE POST-DISPATCH put them on to JASPER some time ago.

THE Democrat who votes for his party's Council ticket votes to substitute the secret caucus of bosses for the open convention of delegates as the method of selecting candidates.

THE voters of St. Louis have twice declared in unmistakable terms that they are tired of both sets of political gangs, but the gangs persist in inviting repudiation; they ought to get it.

THE best advice which the leading Republicans can give the party's Central Committee is to pull in the Republican Council ticket. It is too heavily loaded with boodle records for honest Republicans.

THE adoption of the bill to legalize the pay-check system by the State Legislature shows that the corporations were able to make a better bargain than anyone thought they could make. It beats the defeat of a weekly cash payment bill by a big margin.

SENATOR INGALLS' latest interview is in the nature of a rebuke of the Kansas farmers for not recognizing his versatility as a statesman. There is no reason to doubt that he would have outperformed PEPPER if he had been warned of the political cyclone in time.

SOME of the interviews with prominent politicians concerning the next presidential race which are now being published will be interesting reading after the meeting of the national convention in 1892 as showing what idiots men can make of themselves when they attempt to prophesy.

THE suspicion that the young Emperor WILLIAM is insane is based upon his freakish and pestiferous interference with every department of the Government, but it is not stated that he sends his brother-in-law to boss the nominations for public office. That development of mental alienation is peculiar to the little Mayor of St. Louis.

THE $150,000 appropriated to make a display of the Francis political outfit at the World's Fair is distinctly set forth in the bill as a mere entering wedge for such further appropriations as the Governor may "deem important regarding promotion of a complete and creditable representation of the State." The $150,000 is to be spent in finding out places where more can be put.

ACCORDING to the decision of the Bonapartist leaders, Prince VICTOR succeeds to the title of that pleasing fiction, the royal heirship of the throne of France, made vacant by the death of Plon-Plon. There was really no need for any decision of Bonapartist leaders upon this matter, as any man with a lively imagination may enjoy the Prince's honor.

THE splitting of the respectable vote upon the respectable candidates of all the Council tickets in the field would afford the boodle combine its opportunity for success. The bosses will see that their voters unite upon the men they want, and reputable citizens should unite upon the one ticket which is free from boodle and machine influence—the Independent municipal ticket.

THE only bill relating to the payment of miners' wages which has found favor in the eyes of the Governor and the Legislature at Jefferson City is a bill which legalizes the pay check system. This is the Underwood bill, which compels mining corporations to pay their employees due bills every two weeks. The due bills would be of course be negotiable at the "pluck-me" stores.

THE so-called platform adopted by the Democratic city convention "fathers itself" unmistakably. It was conceived in a mind that thinks of nothing and regards nothing but the Mayor's spoils machine and the election of a Council which will obey all of the Mayor's mandates and unquestioningly promote all of his schemes.

There is not a word in it which touches upon any question of municipal reform or recognizes any obligation on his part except to feed himself and his friends at the public crib.

LEAVING THE FARM.

Massachusetts, as well as Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, has been taking official cognizance of the abandonment of her farms. Her Labor Bureau publishes a list of 1,461 abandoned farms, 772 of which contain farm buildings left untenanted, because the owners will not live in them and cannot induce anybody to lease them at any price.

Instead of discussing in this connection the poverty which impels men to abandon the certainty of a fair living on these farms and crowding into cities in search of work at wages that will barely support life, the Massachusetts papers would do well to recognize the fact that poor land is abandoned because it does not afford a cultivator the certainty of a fair living. He goes to the cities because he hears of no great profits realized from the best lands, while examples of enormous wealth quickly acquired in the business lotteries of the great trade centers are continually appearing before his eyes.

While the Philadelphia papers tell of farms in their State greatly reduced in value and being sold under the Sheriff's hammer because the owners have cultivated them at a loss till overwhelmed with debt, the same papers are publishing evidence of immense profits realized in other lines of business. The Pennsylvania Railroad's last report, for instance, tells of gross earnings for the past year amounting to $133,000,000; of a great increase in the value of mileage and plant; of a net income of $11,425,000, and of $1,949,000 added to a cash surplus of $22,017,000 after paying 5½ per cent dividends to stockholders.

There is no farm or plantation in the Union that can show any such balance sheet as that. CARRIAGE, GOULD, ROCKEFELLER, HUNTINGTON, STANFORD and all the rest of our rich men made all their money by abandoning farms. Every American boy has heard of HUNTINGTON's boast that the most he ever earned on a farm was $7 a month.

THE LIBERAL ULTIMATUM.

In his speech at Hastings on the 17th Mr. GLADSTONE declared that Liberals were still for home rule on the lines accepted by PARNELL and all the Irish Home Rulers when they supported so unanimously Mr. GLADSTONE's defeated bill. If Mr. PARNELL could induce his present supporters, the Tories, to introduce a bill based on the same twin ideas of first, handing over to Ireland a full and efficacious control of her local affairs, and second, maintaining an equally full and efficacious imperial control, Mr. GLADSTONE said he would help them to pass it.

The only change in the Liberal attitude was with reference to PARNELL himself. After the divorce proceedings they had decided against making him the constitutional leader in Ireland, and they would accept defeat rather than recede from that decision. A majority of the Irish members had deposed PARNELL from the leadership; a minority had for the first time in the history of the Irish party refused to be governed by the majority, and until the Irish people decided between these factions Mr. GLADSTONE could conceive of nothing more injurious to the Irish cause than the doubt thus raised as to Ireland's convictions.

This is not intended as a menace, but its plain meaning is that Ireland must promptly and clearly sustain the majority of her members who deposed PARNELL, or see the English Liberal party drop its home rule agitation in behalf of Ireland. That is to say, she will have to look to the Tories alone for such concessions as they are willing to grant. It is simply a question whether she shall throw over the English party that favors her cause and the majority of her own representatives, or the one man who did not scruple to degrade her cause to the furtherance of his dishonorable amour.

JUDGER WITHROW's decision giving the Independent Municipal ticket the privilege of separate grouping under its caption on the city ballot is in accordance with both the right and the law. It places the candidates of Independent electors, nominated as provided in the Australian ballot law, upon an equality with the candidates of parties which happen to be organized before the election, as it should be. It is an absurdity to presume that the law-makers proposed giving unfair advantage to a party merely because of the fact of its organization, or would deliberately discriminate between candidates recognized as such under the law. The refusal to accord the privilege belonging to the Independent ticket without an order from court must be regarded as a political trick to obstruct the Independent movement.

DETECTIVE O'MALLEY, the citizen of New Orleans who was wanted so badly by his fellow citizens a few days ago, appears to have been greatly misjudged. He says he went in to the Italian cases chiefly for the purpose of destroying the Mafia. Mr. O'MALLEY will have hard work making people understand how he expected to do so by bringing a jury in the interest of members of the Mafia, but the result justifies his claim. He succeeded in destroying eleven of them.

SAID A SONG OF CECILIE. NOONAN'S little boom; Five or six big bosses Sitting in a room, When the door was opened The women were on a stage, Which Democracy's Convention Was compelled to nominate.

A BILL has been introduced in the Texas Legislature compelling railroad restaurants keepers to put dates on their pies. What does anyone want with dates on an apple, mince, peach or pumpkin pie? The thing is absurd.

It must be a difficult thing to find a room in the California Capitol to accommodate the Committee for Investigation of Bribery in the Senatorial contest, because the smiles of the committeemen when they meet for business are so broad.

A BILL to abolish the check payment system would go through the North Dakota Legislature with a rush. The checks with which some of the members were paid for their votes turned out to be worthless.

PRESIDENT HARRISON thinks it "about time to abolish the chairmanship of apologetics in the Republican party." The President forgets that his term of office still has two years to run.

A WOMAN scattered a parade of New York militiamen the other day by turning her hose on them. It is difficult to imagine the woman's hose which would make St. Louis militiamen scatter.

Mr. PARNELL only had that fire escape which was so convenient once he could use it to save himself from a drop. He has been called down again.

An actor complains of the system of traveling combinations because he cannot count on home ties. True, but he can always count on railroad ties.

THE worst victim of grip is the Democratic party of St. Louis.

THERE are nights of the grip in nearly every household now.

THE QUESTION OF CIRCULATION.

A Pertinent Suggestion From a Leading Advertiser.

The following letter has been received by the POST-DISPATCH from one of the prominent advertisers of St. Louis, a merchant who spends many thousands of dollars every year in advertising in the St. Louis papers, and whose name we withhold for the present at his own request:

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: In your issue of Friday, March 20, you make editorial claims of a circulation in St. Louis every Sunday morning exceeding 40,000 papers. Admitting your statement to be true (I do not doubt it) I am still in doubt as to the city or country circulation of your competitors. I am a large advertiser, and of course the representatives of the three big dailies solicit my business. The statements of these gentlemen are so conflicting that I have resolved to make a suggestion which seems to me both practical and just. It is this: I am willing to be one of a number of say ten or twenty of our largest local advertisers to contribute a liberal amount, say $250 each, to obtain the services of two or three experts, to make thorough examination of the circulation of the newspapers periodically and to give that information to this syndicate in detail. I claim that advertisers have a perfect right to know what value they obtain for their money. As merchants, we are compelled to submit our goods to inspection before we can make a sale—why not the newspapers? The buying of advertising space, as it is conducted in some instances in St. Louis, is a "pig in the bag" operation. We have the windy claims of advertising agents as the only guarantee of the value we are to receive. It seems to me, as large buyers of your space, we have a clear right to know what quantity and what quality of goods you deliver for our money. There is nothing original or new in this assumption. Reliable newspapers in Chicago, New York, Boston and other cities are glad of an opportunity to show up their circulation—why not in St. Louis? If the Post-Dispatch prints its circulation and the other papers through their representatives claim, as in some cases, double that amount, what am I to do? How am I to decide where to spend my money? I have given this matter considerable thought of late, and your editorial note of last evening determined me to make this suggestion. What do you, Mr. Editor, think of it? Are you willing to submit your circulation to experts, to be selected by the merchants? Please publish these few lines in the interests of your patrons and greatly oblige, yours very truly, MERCHANT.

St. Louis, March 21, 1891. In answer to the above letter we beg to say that the POST-DISPATCH recognizes fully the justice of the suggestion it contains. The rates of advertising in the newspapers are always based on circulation and when a newspaper refuses to submit its claims of circulation to a fair and disinterested proof such refusal is an admission that the claims will not bear such a test. The advertiser who is compelled to show his goods to the purchaser before getting his price for them has a right to demand of the newspapers that he shall be allowed to satisfy himself by a thorough examination as to the value of their circulation before he pays his money for advertising.

THE POST-DISPATCH cordially and unreservedly accepts the suggestion to submit its circulation to an examination of experts to be selected by the advertisers. It is ready at any time to submit for such examination every book, paper and record in its office relating to its circulation, and to rest its claims for advertising patronage, not on its own unsupported assertions, but on the facts as discovered and verified by any committee, appointed for that purpose, by the POST-DISPATCH.

St. Louis, March 21, 1891.

WINDING invitations, the finest executed, at Mermel & Jaccard's, cor. Broadway and Locust, at the lowest prices. Fine stationery.

JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON.

THE CELEBRATED CONFEDERATE CHIEF. TAIN DIED YESTERDAY.

After Short Suffering the Summons Came—Cause of the Deceased—Funeral Arrangements Not Yet Decided Upon.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Gen. Joseph E. Johnston died at 11:15 o'clock to-night. He was taken sick some time ago and after a careful diagnosis of the case, his physicians pronounced it a fatty degeneration of the heart. While attending the Sherman campaign in New York city he caught a cold which produced a complication of trouble that laid him up and the physicians pronounced his case hopeless.

Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. Death was only a question of time. Since then he has gradually grown worse, and his death has been expected at any moment. Yesterday he passed away quietly, unconscious of everything, ending the career of one of the greatest military captains America ever produced.

With him at the last moment were ex-Gov. McLean of Maryland and the nurse. His death was very sudden and a few moments before the disolution there was no outward appearance to indicate it. He then gasped feebly once or twice and the great leader of armies had himself obeyed the last summons. His death was so peaceful that Gen. McLean who was at his bedside could not for a moment believe that the General was dead.

There was not a sigh, not a movement; his heart ceased to beat, and he sank to rest peacefully and as quietly as a babe to sleep. In addition to his heart trouble, the General had contracted a severe cold, when he recently acted as pall-bearer at the funeral of Admiral Porter and Gen. Sherman.

Joseph Eggleston Johnston was born at Longwood, Prince Edward County, Va., in 1807, and passed his boyhood days near Abingdon, Va., where his father was judge of the court under the old system of the State. He was educated at West Point and graduated in 1829 at the age of 22, having won high honors. He was made a Second Lieutenant in the United States army, and became a First Lieutenant in 1837 on his merits after serving a year in the Florida war which began in 1835 and ended in 1845. In 1845 he was promoted Captain and in 1846 was made Captain of Topographical Engineers to do duty in Mexico. He served all through the Mexican war, being brevetted Colonel and Colonel on re-entering the ranks when war began. During the war he was brevetted Colonel for gallantry on the field of battle. He was promoted Major and then Lieutenant Colonel, and was commissioned Major and then Lieutenant Colonel in 1840 was promoted to Quartermaster-General. At the outbreak of the civil war in April, 1861, he resigned the position of quartermaster to enter the Confederate army, where he was made a General. He served throughout the civil war bravely and with ability, his chief opponent throughout the war being Gen. W. T. Sherman, at whose funeral he acted as pall-bearer a few weeks ago. After the war Gen. Johnston became president of an insurance company in Richmond, and in 1878 was elected a Representative from Virginia to the Forty-third Congress. He declined a re-nomination, and in April, 1885, he was appointed Chief of the Bureau of the Department of the Interior at Washington by President Cleveland. President Harrison dismissed Gen. Johnston against the protests of Gen. Sherman and army officers of high rank and influence. Since leaving the service Gen. Johnston has been living quietly in Washington.

NOVEL silver spoons for collectors and

THE PEOPLE DENOUNCE THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S ACTION.

St. Johns, Newfoundland, March 21.—The British Government's intention to obtain imperial legislation coercing this colony was decided upon in the middle of January and communicated to the Governor in the month of February, but withheld from the colony Government and Legislature until the middle of March, and on the very day the measure was introduced into Parliament

DEATH ENDS LOVE.

Mrs. Nellie Day Shoots Herself in Her Lover's Presence.

HER RASH ACT CAUSED BY HIS REFUSAL TO TAKE HER TO A BALL.

George Jout, the Woman's Lover, Gives an Account of the Quarrel and Shooting.—They Were Seated at the Supper Table When the Rash Act Was Committed.—Insane Jealousy.

Mrs. Nellie Day, aged 23, insane with jealousy and disappointed in love, at 1 o'clock last night sent a ball through her breast from a .38-caliber building revolver, ending her life on the spot. She and George Jout, with whom she has lived as wife for the past two years, were at supper in the little second-story back room of 1723 South Eighth street, where they live, when some words passed about attending a ball to be given at Capitol Hall by the Knights of Friendship. The young woman arose from her seat during the quarrel, deliberately put a pistol to her right breast and pulled the trigger, with the result told.

The suicide's parents reside at Collinsville, Ill., their name being Zimmerman. The story leading up to the suicide is a most pitiful, yet common one. A neglected wife at the age of 20, Nellie became enamored of Jout, who is a carpenter. Her love was apparently returned. The couple tired of the bonds that separated them, and one morning James Day awoke to the fact that his neglected wife had gone. He secured work for himself, but the runaways, who continued to live in St. Louis, he being employed at the Missouri Car-works.

THE FINAL QUARREL. Mrs. Day and Jout had an understanding that a divorce was to be procured from Day at the earliest possible moment, and they were to have been married. Jout is from New Orleans, is of French descent. He was popular with the ladies, and Mrs. Day often displayed violent jealousies. Jout, to all apparent information, did not come up to her expectations. She was a beautiful woman, yet she did not receive the undivided attention of her lover. The little family was not a happy one, and signs that Jout was growing tired of her made matters worse. She often threatened to take her own life, but her lover laughed at the assertion. It was evident that he was not so deeply infatuated with the girl as he had been, but yet he treated her kindly. She asked that a divorce be procured from her former husband, but for various reasons this was put off from time to time. Money was lacking and work not plentiful for carpenters. Finally, the woman, growing weary of the long wait, secured work for herself in the St. Louis Bagging Factory, at Ninth and Barry streets.

THE FINAL QUARREL. Almost enough money necessary to commence proceedings for a divorce had been earned, when another quarrel took place at supper last evening. Jout's account of what occurred is as follows: "We were sitting at the table when Nellie asked me to take her to a ball. I refused, when she said she had a good notion of going by herself. I told her that if she wanted to go she could, but that she should never come back to me. 'Because,' said I, 'you cannot be running around by yourself.' 'She then asked me again to take her, and I refused. I was drinking coffee and did not notice that she got up from the table. But suddenly I heard a shot, and looking up I saw Nellie fall upon the bed. I saw blood gushing from a wound in her breast, and knowing that she had shot herself, I ran for a doctor. When I got back she was dead. Nellie was jealous, but I did not imagine that she would do such a terrible thing. I never had a pistol in the house and cannot imagine where she got the weapon with which she shot herself. I do not know whether or not she bought or borrowed the pistol. I was not looking at her when the shot was fired and my attention was first called by the loud report of the pistol. There was another person in the room at the time and it was several minutes before any one came in.

PECULIAR FEATURES. There are many peculiar features surrounding the death of Mrs. Day. She was of best of humor when she returned from her work yesterday afternoon, and she was seen by several neighbors only about twenty minutes before the fatal shot was fired. She had forgotten to get bread for the evening meal and appeared to be in the best of humor. The wound is rather high above the right nipple and ranges only slightly downward. The clothes are slightly powder burned, but not badly so. By taking a pistol in the right hand it will be seen that it is very hard to shoot high on the right side especially and not allow the bullet to range downward to a very great degree. There is nothing else, however, that points to any other theory than that of suicide. Jout was questioned by the police, but nothing of a suspicious nature was developed.

HER MOTHER NOTIFIED. The sad news was telegraphed to the mother at Collinsville, who will be not only shocked at the way of her daughter's death, but her mode of life before her death. It has been supposed that Jout and Mrs. Day were married, the girl having written home to her folks that she had procured a divorce from Day and had married the man for whom she had left her husband. Mrs. Day has often spoken of her people, saying that they were refined people, the truthfulness of this statement being borne out by her lady-like bearing and genteel manners. She has made many friends during her residence in the neighborhood where she resided with Jout.

A Small Blast. A few minutes after 11 o'clock last night an alarm was given from box 816 for a $60 blast. The first floor of the new building in course of erection at 978 Clark street. The property is owned by J. T. Moore, 228 South Lemay avenue.

Bitten by a Dog. Five-year-old John Hilbert, living at 813 Brooklyn street, was bitten in the left arm by a vicious dog while playing near his home about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

BLISS Cockroach and Bedbug Exterminators. Depot, 1138 Olive st. Druggists and Grocers.

JEWETT'S REFRIGERATORS!!
RINGER STOVE CO.
508 N. Fourth Street.

EUROPE.
We issue tickets by the best lines at lowest rates. Bertha and state room reserved for any sailing. Dates and sailing on application.

T. F. BRYAN & CO.,
European Steamship Agents, 600 Pine St.

A CHALLENGE!

We challenge Any House in the West to come near selling the following lines of goods at the prices we will sell them at on Monday.

At 29c
50 dozen Ladies' Brilliant Black Derby Ribbed Lisle-thread Hose, 29c a pair; they are sold everywhere at 75c.

At 15c
300 pieces Genuine French Satens, can be seen in any house in the city at 25c and 35c, our price this week 15c. If every yard is not Genuine French Saten you need not pay for them.

At 14c
30 cartons fine French Velvet Flowers and Roses, finest colors, sold everywhere at 65c, our price on Monday 14c.

At 49c
20 pieces 24-inch BLACK CHINA SILKS, worth 75c.

At $10.75 to $16.75
50 Ladies' China Silk and Surah Silk (all pure silk) Suits, latest styles, sold everywhere at $22.50 to $30. This week, $10.75 to $16.75.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

At $2.95
10 dozen fine SILK JERSEYS, latest styles, $2.95; regular price, $6.50.

SPECIAL EASTER WEEK OFFERING

NEW DRESS GOODS.

Contrary to our usual custom we have decided to offer our whole stock of HIGH NOVELTY DRESS GOODS during Easter at prices which will surprise every one. We will place on SALE TO-MORROW.

Parisian 100 French Novelty Combination, Embroidered and other Robes, at Unmade $10 and $12.95 a Robe

Costumes, None worth less than $15; some worth as high as $25. Your choice of the lot for Ten Dollars and Twelve Ninety-five.

Hairy Polka Dots, 50 pieces Scotch Cheviot Suiting, } At 85c

Hairy Plaids, 50 inches wide, worth $1.50, } $5 for a full Dress Pattern worth $9.

Scotch Homespun, 100 pieces 36-inch Twilled Cam- } At 50c

Camel's-hair Mixtures el's-hair Suiting, worth 65c, } $5 for a full Dress Pattern.

Camel's Hair, 120 pieces 36-inch Novelty Plaids } At 50c with Hairy Stripes, and Stripes, worth 68c, } $5 for a full Dress Pattern.

French Foulle, with 75 pcs. 40-inch all-wool French } At 50c

Camel's-Hair Figures Henrietta, actual value 65c, } $4 for a full Dress Pattern.

Feather-Weight Camel's 150 pieces Novelty Plaids and } At 25c

Hair, with Snowflake stripes, worth 35c, } $2.50 for a full Dress Pattern.

Dashes, Etc., Etc.

PENNY & CENTLES--SOUTHWEST CORNER BROADWAY AND FRANKLIN AVENUE

DEATHS.

BUTLER--Thursday, March 19, 1891, at 10 o'clock

p. m., Mr. MARY BUTLER, aged 50 years.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock p. m., Sunday, March 22, from family residence, 1400 North Ninth street, to St. Patrick's Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

KATIE BUTLER, Deceased;

EDWARD GERAGHTY, Deceased;

MICHAEL GERAGHTY, Deceased;

DEVNEY--On Friday, March 20, at 6:10 a. m.,

Mrs. MARY DEVNEY, beloved wife of Peter Devney, aged 48 years.

Funeral will take place from family residence, 1819 1/2 South Eighth street, on Sunday, March 22, at 2 o'clock p. m. Friends are invited to attend.

GRAY--On Friday, the 20th inst., O. FRANK

GRAY, aged 87 years, after a long illness.

Funeral will take place from late residence, No. 1408 Park avenue, on Sunday, March 22, at 2 p. m. Friends invited to attend.

KENISON--Dr. N. KENISON, chiropractor, at Boston, Mass., March 20.

QUINLAN--Friday, March 20, at 5 p. m.,

THOMAS QUINLAN, aged 81 years, beloved father of Mrs. Thomas Foley of No. 1630 Hogan street.

The remains will be shipped to Ansonia, Kan.

LYONS--Friday, March 20, at 10:45 p. m.,

Dr. LYONS, son of Mary E. and the late Cornelius Lyons, aged 26 years, 11 months and 26 days.

Funeral from family residence, 2612 Madison street, at 9:30 o'clock, to St. Leo's Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery.

MARSHALL--On the 21st inst., at 8 p. m., at residence, No. 2800 Morgan st.,

ALEXANDER E. MARSHALL, aged 51 years.

Louisville (Ky.) papers please copy.

McGUFFIN--MOLLIE, beloved wife of James B. McGuffin, died suddenly in New York City, Saturday, March 21.

Due notice of funeral will be given.

MONTAGUE--At her home in Glasgow, Mo., March 20, Mrs. FANNY HARRISON MONTAGUE.

TERRELL--On March 20, at 4:30 o'clock, Mrs. ESTHER J., at the home of her son-in-law, Joseph Terrell, 2801 Cambridge avenue; was born Oct. 5, 1820, in Honesdale, N. H., and daughter of Samuel Spencer.

Funeral Sunday, March 22, at 2 o'clock.

Minnesota and Springfield (Mass.) papers please copy.

VICTOR--On Saturday, March 21, 1891, at 7 o'clock a. m.,

LUCY VICTOR, nee Mullin, wife of Wm. Victor, aged 22 years.

The funeral will take place Monday, 23d inst., at 1:30 o'clock p. m., from residence, 3812 Penrose street, to Holy Name, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

BLISS Cockroach and Bedbug Exterminators. Depot, 1138 Olive st. Druggists and Grocers.

Easter Offerings.

KID GLOVES!

Among the many Kid Gloves offered for public favor, there has never been the equal of, or one that has received such universal praise as the Genuine Xavier Jouvain Kid Gloves.

To have become the foremost Gloves of the world, they must necessarily possess unequalled merits and superior qualities.

These gloves were invented by Xavier Jouvain in 1834, in Grenoble, France; so finished and perfect was the cut that it has never been improved upon by any manufacturer up to the present time, but has become the ideal system of cutting adopted by all other makers. We are selling agents in St. Louis for these celebrated Kid Gloves; we have them in all standard qualities, plain and embroidered back, every pair warranted and fitted to the hand.

4-button Electric, plain.....$1.35

4-button Electric, embroidered.....$1.50

4-button Richelieu, embroidered.....$2.00

4-button Suede Mousquetaire.....$1.75

4-button Suede.....$1.35

SPECIAL BARGAIN FOR EASTER WEEK:

200 dozen 4-button French KID GLOVES, in browns, tans and slates, worth $1.25 pair, this week at 79c Per Pair.

HOSIERY.

To-morrow (Monday) we will place on sale

100 dozen Ladies' Black Brilliant Ribbed Lisle Thread Hose

At 29c Per Pair.

Worth 75c.

Factory, N. W. Corner Twenty-second and Chestnut Streets.

Down-Town Sample Room, 422 Washington Av., Room 64, August Bldg.

Merchants will find it to their interest to purchase direct from the manufacturer and save the jobber's profit for themselves.

BLISS Cockroach and Bedbug Exterminators. Depot, 1138 Olive st. Druggists and Grocers.

Newland's College of Midwifery and LYING-IN INSTITUTE.

This is the only institute of the kind in the West, in which regular physician lectures, and which is connected with a lying-in hospital, so that students will receive practical and theoretical lessons. Male and female students admitted. The regular term will commence March 28 and September 1 every year. Ladies who expect their confinement accompanied.

DR. H. NEWLAND, 1205 Chestnut st.

METROPOLITAN STABLES.

KNORR & WEISENBERGER, UNDERTAKERS & EMBALMERS.

Livery, boarding and sale stables. Light livery carriages and cabs. Horses, 1001, 1002 and 1003 Clark av. Telephone 897.

A. F. Erker & Bro. OPTICIANS.

617 Olive St. (Two doors west of Barr's)

Gold, Silver and Steel Spectacles accurately adjusted.

THOS. DUNN, 912 FRANKLIN AV.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

ONE WEEK ONLY COMMENCING

WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY MATINEES.

IDEAL EXTRAVAGANZA CO.

FROM THE CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE.

100—PEOPLE ON THE STAGE—100

TOUR DIRECTED BY

JAS. E. MEADE & WENYSS HENDERSON,

PRESENTING THE GREATEST

OPERATIC SPECTACLE

OF THE TIMES

BLUEBEARD

OR FATIMA

AND THE FAIRY JR.

SEE

THE SUPERS SCENERY

THE BEWITCHING BALLET

THE CATCHY MELODIES

THE CLEVER COMEDIANS

THE DAZZLING COSTUMES

THE PERIAN MILITARY MARCH

THE CHILDREN'S HEROES

ROBINSON CRUSOE AND FRIDAY

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

PUSS IN BOOTS

JACK, THE GIANT KILLER

ALADDIN AND HIS LAMP

CINDERELLA AND THE PRINCE

THE OLD WOMAN WHO LIVED IN A SHOE

SOME OF THE ARTISTS

JOHN D. GILBERT, LAURA CLEMENT,

DOUGLAS A. FLINT,

DOROTHY MORTON, EDWARD PEIPER,

JESSIE VILLARS, IDA BELL, and others.

THEN YOU MUST SEE

THE HEBREW POLICEMEN

THE HINDOO HOURS

THE BIRDS AND INSECTS

THE LIGHT OF ASIA

THE GLITTERING ARMORS

THE GREAT TRANSFORMATION SCENE

TRUTH AND LIGHT.

TO-NIGHT!

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

NEXT WEEK--Hoyt's A Trip to Chinatown.

COMING!

EXPOSITION BUILDING.

The Jarrett & Palmer Version of Uncle

KING-HATERS TO MEET.

A CONGRESS OF TWENTY-THREE REPUBLICANS TO BE HELD AT WASHINGTON.

How the Convention Is to Be Constituted—President Harrison to Preside—A Proposed Free Trade of All Republics—A Room for Self-Government.

Special Correspondence SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—Judge Amos of New York has been named as the general committee of two hundred to meet in Washington on April 8, to complete arrangements for the assembling of the Pan-Republic Congress in this country next year. The congress is meant to be a gathering of representatives of all republics and of all republicans in the world, all who are opposed to kings and kingcraft. One of the objects of this Washington meeting is to decide whether the Pan-Republic shall be held—whether in this city, New York or Chicago—and another is to perfect the schedule of "plan and scope."

April 10 is the anniversary of the signing of Don Antonio Flores, President of Ecuador, the first American patent by President Washington, and this date has been selected for the meeting in recognition of the debt that free institutions owe to mechanical inventions within this century. An Edinburgh puts it, "Every machine has a king."

It should be mentioned that this Pan-Republic Congress is in no way connected, except in point of time, with the great Columbian Centennial at Chicago, or with the Bureau of American Republics which has been invented and organized by Mr. Blaine and his director, Mr. Wm. E. Curtis, the journalist and author.

The war for the Union and its outcome gave a tremendous impetus to the self-governing ambition of the people of Europe and fired the "friends of freedom" with a new resolve. Almost immediately they arose in every nation from Sweden to Turkey and formed a Holy Alliance for the furtherance of republican principles, and in 1890 one of their leaders was elected from France by Napoleon and sent to this country.

I was at work at my desk when one morning Mr. Greeley sent me and presented me to Gen. Gustave Cluseret, asking me to Don Bernardo De Soto, President of Costa Rica, take him to certain persons whom he indicated. I knew that Cluseret had been a captain in the French army, a colonel under Garibaldi in storming Padua, a picturesque and dashing general under Fremont, the editor of the New Nation, and finally a recognized foe of the French Empire, but I was not prepared for the tale he told. He said he was an officer in the alliance of Eu-

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

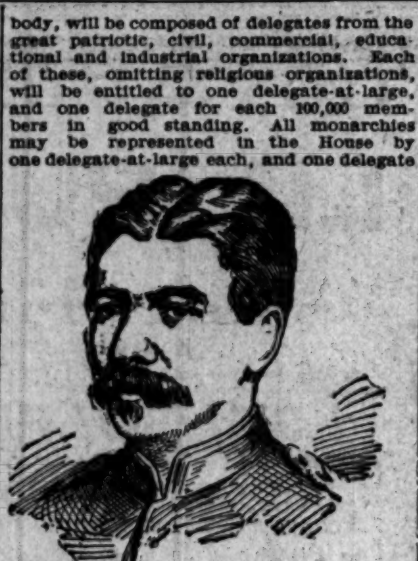

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate for each 5,000,000 of citizens—though how these latter are to be authoritatively appointed does not appear. The objects of the congress are:

Gen. Manuel L. Borrillo, President of Guatemala.

I. To promote the establishment of republics.

II. To forward the interest of humanity.

III. To substitute arbitration for war.

IV. To inculcate international morality.

V. To establish reciprocity in trade.

VI. To increase education.

VII. To encourage methods tending to prolong and protect human life.

Churches shall not be represented, nor religious topics discussed.

POSSIBLE MEASURES.

I learn of a movement that has been started by some of the most influential promoters of this Pan-Republic, extending the reciprocity idea somewhat beyond the dream of James G. Blaine, so far as the latter are revealed. It involves the repeal of our tariff laws as against all republics, and their maintenance as against all monarchies. It proposes absolute free trade with all South America (for their own products, of course) and with Southern France, San Marino, and the three midland republics of North Germany—Hamburg, Bremen and Lubeck. "If such a policy shall be adopted," said a United States Senator to me yesterday, asking that his name be mentioned, "there will be some difficulty in our distinguishing their own staples and fabrics from those which they have bought elsewhere, but the difficulty could be minimized, if not overcome. The idea of offering free trade to all republics would be a popular one from the first mention of it, and it could be put in practice with little friction. If necessary, certain things could be excepted from it—as wines from France, Mexico and South America would feel an impulse of prosperity from it, and Canada would suffer from the pressure of discrimination against her, on account of her British connections."

It is significant that at the preliminary meeting here in April, on the centennial of patents, President Harrison will preside, and it is promised that presidents of some of the other republics will be present with us next year to "bear testimony."

ST. LOUIS ATHLETES WIN.

Baptiste and Schaan Victorious in the Detroit Wrestling Tournament.

DETROIT, Mich., March 21.—Julius Schaan, Pastime, St. Louis, won light-weight wrestling, and George Baptiste, Pastime, won middle-weight wrestling at the Michigan athletic tournament to-night.

WHO THE WINNERS ARE.

George Baptiste, who won the middle-weight event is the best known of the St. Louis amateur wrestlers and is one of the cleverest amateurs in the country. These contests were at catch-as-catch-can style, and Baptiste's first attempt at catch-as-catch-can wrestling, he had entered both the middle and heavy weight classes, but may have only competed in one. He has taken part in a number of wrestling matches and tournaments here and was never defeated by an amateur at Greco-Roman style, and the only time he was ever defeated was when he was thrown by Tommy of Chicago at the boxing and wrestling tournament of the Western Association of Amateur Athletes held a year ago at the Entertainment Hall of the Exposition. It was Baptiste's first attempt at catch-as-catch-can wrestling, and he threw him, is not only very skillful at that style of wrestling, but is a man who won the light-weight wrestling, is a new man. He made his first public appearance at the recent tournament given by the St. Louis Athletic Club at the Entertainment Hall of the Exposition. There he won the light-weight event with ease, picking up his opponent, and downing him without an effort. Schaan is a turner, and in build is short and stocky like Baptiste and possesses phenomenal strength for his size. He is regarded as the coming amateur champion of America at his weight.

The Pastime Club also sent John Victor to Detroit. Victor was the only one of the middleweight and heavy-weight sparring events, but was probably defeated.

Shot Through the Lungs.

CHENEY, Wyo., March 21.—A row over a game of cards among the cut-throat at Coo & Carter's tie camp in the Medicine Bow Mountains, terminated with the fatal wounding of Scott Zorn, who was shot through the lungs. The man who did the shooting escaped, and has not yet been captured.

Beautiful Decorations.

The wife of one of the best-known wallpaper printers in the country rejoices in some room decorations and furniture which are certain never to be widely imitated, simply because they cannot be, although the cost was quite small.

The ordinary wall paper is printed upon cylindrical rollers, varying in size according to the pattern, which is raised upon them in very high relief. The narrower borders are printed upon a set of rollers of the same size, and stand boldly out. Of course, the cutting of these cylinders and strips is quite expensive, but when the patterns become old-fashioned they are no longer useful. This lady has taken a large quantity of the east-iron cylinders and strips and combined them to make a library table, a painted, decorative frame, a wall cabinet, a drop curtain, a framework of a place or two of upholstered furniture. The effect when the proper colors are used in painting the furniture is remarkable. It is not often that a private house in America can show anything like such a quantity of beautiful relief carvings. A decorative frame, a wall cabinet, a drop curtain, a framework of a place or two of upholstered furniture. The effect when the proper colors are used in painting the furniture is remarkable. It is not often that a private house in America can show anything like such a quantity of beautiful relief carvings. A decorative frame, a wall cabinet, a drop curtain, a framework of a place or two of upholstered furniture. The effect when the proper colors are used in painting the furniture is remarkable. It is not often that a private house in America can show anything like such a quantity of beautiful relief carvings.

Dr. Remedio Andres Palacios, President of Venezuela.

list of delegates appointed by the Presidents of all the republics in the world—of which there are, I believe, twenty-three—one delegate-at-large and one delegate for every 5,000,000 citizens. This will give the United States a round dozen of delegates in the Senate. The House, the inferior

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

body, will be composed of delegates from the great patriotic, civil, commercial, educational and industrial organizations. Each of these, omitting religious organizations, will be entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each 10,000 members in good standing. All monarchies may be represented in the House by one delegate-at-large each, and one delegate

AN EVENING IN BOLOGNA

HOW THE ITALIANS SPEND THE END OF THEIR SUNDAY.

A Place Where the Barber-Shop Reigns Triumphant—Scenes in a Restaurant—An Italian Dime Museum—The Immorality of the Italian Nation.

Special Correspondence SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, FLORENCE, Italy, Feb. 26.—On my way from Venice to Florence I stopped off at the ancient town of Padua and pay a visit to Petrarch's house at Arquà, among the blue Euganean Hills, but not understanding the Italian porter's equivalent for Padua, I was long past the station when I woke up to the fact that though Padua was quite near to Venice on the physical plane, very long time in getting to it. At length, if questioned, the guard, who informed me, with a sardonic grin at my discomfort, that we passed Padua hours ago, so I reconciled myself to the loss. If I wanted to make up for the deficiency of seeing one Northern Italian town, the least I could take in an additional Southern one with its usual stock in trade of historical and romantic associations. The guard did not know the precise time we would get to Florence. I suppose he thought to himself that the fact of getting there some time during the week was enough for any ordinary individual.

It was six in the evening when I arrived at Bologna, where I had to change cars for Florence. Thinking, American fashion, that another train was ready in the station to take me on to Florence, I gripped my portable luggage for the change of cars, but I was soon enlightened by one of the easy-going station officials who informed me there was no train for Florence until midnight, so I put my baggage in the cloak-room and sallied out to Bologna in six hours that Sunday evening and got a little of its local color.

I went out from the station with the crowd and in the first principal street I struck every third shop was a barber-shop. During a half-hour's peregrinations in search of a restaurant, I have never seen more barber-shops and shaving in all my life. True they were fitted up with patent American chairs, only with a sort of a compromise, but they looked inviting and cozy enough and were vastly preferable from a physical point of view to passing away a Sunday evening through a damp stone church. Not until churches in Europe are made as comfortable as our churches in America, where such popular church institutions, and I can awaken to the fact, for has not the preached Gen. Booth said that "you cannot preach religion to an empty stomach?"

BARBER-STOPS TRIUMPH.

Bologna, if she is renowned for her sausage, she ought also to be renowned for her numerous tonsorial resorts. At length I sought the restaurant I was seeking, and walked in and seated myself in the midst of what was a very lively crowd of individuals. They were all well dressed, and I afterwards found the majority of them were medical students and young gentlemen of leisure with a sprinkling of the military. The waiter came up and planked a big wicker-covered table of wine in front of me. I was for though I had heard of Europeans being used to drinking wine from their infancy, and therefore could stand a good deal of it, surely they did not consume so much as I saw at each meal. I did not want to appear green, however, and questioned the waiter on the subject, and I soon found that you drank what you pleased, and as I was to bill the waiter with a practiced eye sized up the flask and charged me accordingly. This was the first of a story an English student in Padua told me of an evening. I was in the habit of diluting her tea. These decaters have marks and figures down the side of the bottle to indicate the quantity drunk. This Englishman ordered a cafe, and as the cognac was brought along, but the waiter, who did not know John Bull's capacity for cognac, was thunderstruck when he saw the Englishman swallow the whole contents of the decanter at a gulp.

In all European countries each city has its own peculiar customs. Bologna is different from Rome, Florence and Venice. Bologna, from Florence, though in America such cities would only be considered within hailing distance. A neighbor of mine at the same table conceived a peculiar flash of elbow. First he was served with stalks of celery and after cutting them up into small sections the waiter brought him a spirit in which was what some city folk call before his eyes, a grater and a nugget of some chocolate looking substance not a nutmeg. After cooking the stuff in the lamp to satisfaction he poured it over the grater and then grated the mysterious substance over all. It was a fine dyspeptic looking compound, but the Italians are never troubled that way. They take no pleasure after their meals. Although the cooking was novel to me, still I wished my friend could have had some other option for than right under by nose. Getting into conversation with him, as he could speak French, he told me he was a student at one of the colleges at Cologne, and during some time he had been going over there some time ago "pour faire un beau diplôme," he himself expressed in French, "if he wasn't blessed with a title." "No he wasn't." Then I told him in that case his name would be Dennis or words to that effect in trying to make a name. He said in America without title. That did not worry him, he could easily borrow a title for a few months off one of his friends, so he said.

A BOLOGNA SUPPER.

I regaled myself with the usual macaroni and hashy compounds, it being impossible to get meat in Italy, except in the form of a sausage, at least in the moderate-priced restaurants, and I suppose it is the same in the fashionable hostelrys, on page 100. In one of the principal squares there was a large crowd assembled of all classes, who seemed to take great delight in the antics of a Punch and Judy open-air show and in one of the crowd of spectators, too magnificent for the trade done under this shelter, I came on a show of the American dime museum variety. The printed play-bill announced the grand company of Bufol Bill, such being the Italianized way of putting it, and among other attractions that of Miss Constantinople, the celebrated beauty, who has attracted attention from all the crowned heads of Europe. In front a frowzy-looking female and her equally frowzy-looking husband were extolling the merits of their show to the great crowd. Over their heads were perched a monkey, an eagle and a rooster, the trio having a regular monkey-and-parrot time of it. The frowzy female, the crowned head, the eagle, the monkey, and that animal viciously revenged himself by firing a stick at her head. A notice outside gave the admission prices: Primos, 4 cents; second, 3 cents; so I took a riding in order to see the grand company of Bufol Bill and the wonderful beauty of Miss Constantinople. Inside I found three rows of rickety chairs, and the crowd was a sort of an attempt at a drop-curtain, footlights, etc., and this in the sunny land of Italy, the home of art and music. There was some sort of an orchestra occupying the place where the orchestra should have been, which made the place small like a monkey cage in a zoological garden. After considerable waiting the private female came in and opened up the performance. When the curtain was lifted, or rather the apology for it, the Grand Company of Bufol Bill was revealed. It was a crowd of nondescript crowd of puppets, who bore not the slightest resemblance to Bufol Bill or his Indians. They were all indolently hammering away at something. The audience took the sell good-humoredly. What could they expect for the money, which was not the sell worth 4 cents? On flitting out we had a look at the wonderful beauty of Miss Constantinople, a wax figure in glass case, looked at through a magnifying glass. It was of such startling indecency that it would not be tolerated in America or England for a quarter of a second, but Italy is worse than France in this respect.

ITALIAN IMMORALITY.

After seeing Italy, France seems to me to be very moral. Books and photographs are permitted to be exhibited here in the shop windows of the city, and I saw a number of them. After the Dime Museum, I took in a splendid cafe where a band discoursed sweet music to the crowd. Fathers and mothers were there with their little brood, soldiers, officers, etc. The atmosphere was so charged with tobacco smoke that my glasses were still in a haze, and I can assure my readers it is my last time traveling third class at night in Europe. I could not sleep comfortably for a week afterward, and my bed was more on the hard uncushioned seats. During the first half of the journey a soldier with all his marching accoutrements lay down by me, and I was, necessitating a cramped position, and in the early hours of the morning, at every station where we stopped, crowds of peasants with mystic faces and wild hair, and in the midst of the fresh Apennine morning air. When I arrived in Florence, more dead than alive, I solemnly vowed that henceforth I would do my third-class traveling in Italy by day and rest my weary form in an albergo at night.

DE WOLFE SCANTLAN.

HONEYMOON IN A HOSPITAL.

Bride and Groom Laid Up for Sixteen Weeks by a Railroad Accident.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dulany, a hotel party from Fager County, Va., will, in a few days, be dismissed from the West Pennsylvania Hospital, Pittsburgh, says the Philadelphia Press, where they have passed a sixteen weeks' honeymoon, strange and unparalleled. On Nov. 12, last, they were almost fatally injured in a collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad near New Florence. On Tuesday, for the first time, Mr. Dulany was permitted to walk alone. Mrs. Dulany, as yet, is scarcely able to move about on crutches, and is confined to the hospital. The Pennsylvania Hospital has been the young patients that day, two weeks ago, when Mr. and Mrs. Dulany were placed, for the first time in the invalid chair, with an occasion for general rejoicing. Though perfect strangers, the young couple have made an enviable list of friends since their detention in Pittsburgh, and are the objects of much social attention.

"A strange honeymoon, truly," said the groom, in a chat with a reporter, "but, laying aside the first few days of pain and suffering, augmented by the anxiety of each one for the other, we claim as ours the happiest honeymoon in America. We have cheered each other, consoled each other, and have kept each other from growing impatient over the enforced delay, which has stretched its length along for sixteen weeks."

"My sweetheart, Annie Carter, and I were married on the evening of Nov. 12, at the home of the bride's family. A costly furnished home in Duluth awaited us, and we started off on our trip in great glee. We were, in his spirit, the day we sped on our journey toward the West. Then came the crash, the moans, the unconsciousness. We were brought into the West Pennsylvania Hospital, where my wife lay unconscious for a long time, and I in agony, both of mind and body, unable to move. My wife was cut severely about the head and her ankles were crushed, while my injuries were all in the back."

"It will be weeks before either of us is well, but as soon as we are able to travel we shall go back to the old Virginia home until it is prudent to make another start. We are great thankfulness that we still have each other has overbalanced any tendency to repining, and besides, my wife has shown such patience and womanly nobility and resignation that I do not dare grumble. But if any body had hinted beforehand that I should be obliged to spend a honeymoon of three or four months in a hospital, I am afraid I should have been a wrathful objection."

WASH OR CREDIT

Simply because you may not have the ready money to supply your wants in the line of FURNITURE, CARPETS, STOVES AND HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Is no reason why you should not be just as particular as to where you should go to do your trading. Do not go to UNRELIABLE FIRMS and PAY EXTORTIONATE PRICES for TRASHY GOODS when you can go to the well-known firm of

GUTTERMAN, GLASER & CO., 1005 OLIVE STREET,

And buy goods on terms to suit yourself at strictly cash prices. We Undersell Them All!

Bedroom Sets.....	$11.50	Hat Racks.....	$4.90	Brussels Carpets.....	47c per yard
Parlor Sets.....	20.00	Bed Lounges.....	6.25	Ingrain Carpets.....	18c per yard
Folding Beds.....	15.00	Single Lounges.....	3.50	Oil Cloths.....	25c per yard
Double Beds, Spring and Mattress, complete.....	4.50	Cooking Stoves, guaranteed.....	7.00	Stair Oil Cloths.....	8 1/2c per yard
Sideboards.....	6.75	Heating Stoves, guaranteed.....	4.00	Lace Curtains.....	75c per pair
Wardrobes.....	5.50	Kitchen Safes.....	1.90	Smyrna Rugs.....	70c
		Extension Tables.....	2.40	Cane Chairs.....	65c

found. The limitations of her trance information, its discontinuity and flutiness, and its apparent inability to develop beyond a certain point of view, are amongst its most interesting characteristics, since where there are limits there are conditions, and the discovery of these is always the beginning of explanation. This is all that I can tell you of Mrs. Piper. I wish it were more 'scientific' and, I repeat, it is the best I can do."

A Born Financier.

from the Flying Dutchman, Lebanon: "I owe you $10,000. This week I'll have to pay up. Now, let me think of a way to get the money."

ned the "Conference" was disappointed the small attendance of the "prominent Republicans" invited to participate. The meeting lasted until after 6 o'clock when an adjournment was taken until next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when it is expected

Recorders Carlisle has decided upon a device from this custom. There is a law in force which authorizes him to prosecute those who refuse to serve without a valid ex-

The new addition to HOTEL BEERS is now complete. Persons desiring handsome rooms the spring months can make selection quarters to sub-alliances at the rate of ten to twenty five every month. These are taken from a twelfth of the proceeds each. The western counties, which were neglected until within the last few years, are now being developed. The project is received with much satisfaction by the farmers who see a valuable outlet for their surplus. The central counties will be most thoroughly tested.

10

duce will be tested for saccharine quality and if satisfactory $1,000,000 will be put to best sugar factories here next season. The project is received with much satisfaction by the farmers who see a valuable diversity in crops promised. The central plant will be most thoroughly tested.

A. This was the only time he has been sick in the whole course of his life.
A little romance is connected with Mr.
McGivern's residence in New Orleans. When he lay sick with the fatal fever a strange woman came in with one of her friends one day and was introduced to Mr. McGivern, and tailors have formed a company here purpose of sinking a coal shaft.

ree to sink the shaft and put the eration provided the citizens will onus of $5,000, and to commence work ately. It is thought that the proposibe accepted.

10,000 Pairs Boys' Pants
select from, 19c to $5.
GLOBE, 708 to 718 Franklin avenue.

that wheat "The California grower engaged in the cultivation of wheat is having good luck or good fortune in double-barrel fashion at present. With the steadily improving weather conditions, the wheat crop is expected to be even better at this date, wheat continuing to advance, being 50 per cent higher now than in December, when the weather was as dry as a punk Lumber.

Reported by the Russell-Massengale Commission Co., lumber commission merchants, southwest corner Main and Olive.

Bouquets, $60; Smokettes, $85; Grand Se-Cigars, $35; Mystic Twist, $30; Bonita, $25; Palace, $20; American Beauties, $15; Best 12; Bengal Cheroots, $15.
 Jaccos—Golden Thread, fine cut, $45; "Red" per Hoidisack, $35; Forest Rose Natural Leaf, max. 40c; Rev. 40c; Green 40c; 40c.

TO COME OUT IN STYLE.

LADIES GETTING READY THEIR MANTLES AND DRESSES.

The "Mantle" Girl Will Be a Familiar Object This Spring-Card Parties of the Week-Departures, Returns, Visitors and General Gossip.

Only one more week of enforced dullness, and demi-toilettes, one more week of fasting and penitential studies of the inferno and other appropriate Lenten tasks. The Lenten Easter hat is no doubt already chosen and his don away until the auspicious day. The man modiste is no more prompt than the feminine dressmaker of days gone by, so the Easter gown is still involved in mystery, but the jacket, which will convert the shy girl into a mannish woman, is already hanging up in the closet, looking so much like the paraphernalia of a man, with its coat tails and flaps, and lapels, and pockets and low cut vest, and pinstriped shirt front, and standing collar and tie, as to frighten the average timid woman, and set her to looking under the bed for the boots of the daring intruder.

That these mannish coats are awfully nobby one has only to gaze into the shop windows to see for themselves, but that they are strictly in keeping with the old-fashioned cherished idea of the womanly woman, the best and noblest of her sex, is an open question. The world has a very unwise but usual habit of judging people by their dress. Fine feathers make fine birds, and to the contrary. A woman in a common sense dress is a common sense woman, and in a velvet gown instinctively assumes the airs of a woman of fashion, just the same when she affects the masculine style of dress, displays a penchant for mannish gowns and hats, she is apt to conduct herself in an independent, masculine manner, which will attract the attention of the sex which she most wishes to please to her unwomanly bearing; and she will be sure to look at the eyes of that tender respect with which all women should be regarded. A wise woman will see to it that her garments are distinctly feminine, and by bestowing upon her toilettes the care and taste which they deserve, making dainty selections of color and paying due attention to such dainty accessories as ribbons and laces, and flowers and perfume, will add to her femininity and make herself more womanly. These are some Easter thoughts on the dress of the period which the girls may find worth considering.

Miss Virgie Conn's usual Saturday evening at home was well attended last night. The youthful hostess has reason to congratulate herself upon the uniform success of her entertainments. Last Saturday, March 14, she had quite a throng to enjoy the little play, "My Uncle's Will," which had been rehearsed for performance, upon the pretty little temporary stage which has been prepared for these charming reunions. Last night a very delightful musical program was provided for the entertainment of her visitors, in which the fair hostess, Miss George Anderson, and Miss Josie Mansfield took part. Miss Anderson has recently returned from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, where she spent two years in the culture of her beautiful voice. Miss George Anderson, is one of Mrs. Kate Broad's best pupils, and has frequently been heard here in Mrs. Broad's concerts. Miss Conn's lovely home, on the corner of Olive and Third, has proved one of her most charming accomplishments.

Mrs. Lucy V. S. Ames has decided to further beautify her country place, Northchick. She has contracted at an expense of $15,000, for a complete system of waterworks, which will not only irrigate the soil, but supply also an artificial lake, upon which will be placed pleasure boats, and she will stock it with fish, in order that the angling may be added to the other sylvan sports, which which her guests are assured. Mrs. Henry Turner, formerly Miss Ada Ames, have built for themselves near by a beautiful country house which they occupy the year round, so fond are they of the country. Occasionally they pack up and go off for a few weeks' visit somewhere, wherever their fancy leads them, but they usually are found near neighbors to her mother.

CARD PARTIES.

Miss Lee Ming entertained on Friday evening, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Henry Rinehart, her whist club. Mrs. John Roberts entertained on Friday afternoon her progressive euchre club. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. Joseph Getz, and the second to Mrs. Addison. Mrs. Joseph P. Goodwin entertained last week her euchre club. The first prize, a sixteenth century rocking chair, fell to the lot of the hostess; the second prize, a yellow cushion, was awarded to Miss Ella Taubay, and the third prize, two cut-glass bottles of perfume, was awarded to Miss Grace Donovan. The first prize in the second prize, a shoe case, was won by Mr. Ed. Well; the second prize, a Russian leather collar box, was won by Mr. P. Girardin, and the third prize, a traveling case, was won by Mr. Joseph Donovan.

Mrs. W. Holloway of Pendleton avenue entertained last week the euchre club to which she belongs. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Morris celebrated last night the twentieth anniversary of their marriage with a large progressive euchre party. Miss Bessie Lee entertained on Friday evening her card party on Friday evening in compliment to their guest, Miss Witherspoon of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Charles Arnold entertained last week the euchre club to which she belongs. The first prize, a Royal Worcester chocolate pot, was won by Mr. E. H. Hanson. Miss Canterbury of Boston won the second prize, an embroidered sofa cushion, and the third prize, a traveling case, was won by Mr. Joseph Donovan.

VISITORS.

Mrs. Sam Jamison has been entertaining during the past week Miss Sykes of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Conner of Albany, Ind., and Miss Catherine Artibury, en route for New Orleans, have been visiting Mrs. Claus Vieths. Mr. and Mrs. Lena Hull have been entertaining Mr. Turner and bride (Mrs. Hull's niece), who are on a route from Cuba to their home in Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Adolph Brandenberg is entertaining Miss Laura Kelly. The Misses Sanders of Old Orchard are entertaining their guests, Mrs. Wm. Lee of Boston. Miss Florence Warmouth of Illinois is visiting Mrs. Kennedy of Oberlin avenue. Miss Jennie Prickett will make a visit soon to Mrs. Joseph Jacob. Miss Arline Sawyer of Frankfort, Ky., is visiting Mrs. A. F. Sawyer. Mrs. John R. Christian is entertaining her cousin, Miss Fretor of Sturgeon, Mo. Mrs. G. A. Fische of Jefferson City is making a visit to her mother, Mrs. H. W. Brolaski of No. 308 Franklin avenue. Mrs. Charles Arnold is entertaining Mrs. Dr. Furney of Chestnut street in entertaining her sister, Miss Canterbury, of Boston. Mrs. John H. Holmes is entertaining Mrs. George Miller of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Chicago is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Finn. Miss Loe of New York is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Rice, and Mrs. D. E. Martin of Cincinnati are visiting Kirkwood friends; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Lewis arrived last week to visit her parents; Miss Stella Bodman arrived on Tuesday from Marshall, Mo. to visit St. Louis relatives. Mrs. Chapman of Boston has been making a visit to Mrs. L. D. Patterson. Miss Christine Woodward of Cairo is visiting St. Louis friends. Miss Kate and Miss Mattie Plant are spending a few weeks at Lebanon Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ford of Delmar avenue gave a handsome dinner party last week in compliment to Mrs. Chittenden, who is spending a few weeks in the city.

St. Louis friends, Miss Emma Benschner, after a visit of a week to St. Louis relatives, has gone home. Mrs. Von Wiederstadt of St. Paul, nee Miss Mamma McLaughlin, is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. D. Garth of Washington avenue. Miss Kate Kelly of Hannibal is the guest of St. Louis friends. Miss Maud McDowell of Des Moines is visiting Mrs. Garland of this city. Miss Nollie Glenn of Louisville, Ky., is visiting Mrs. J. H. Patterson of this city. Mrs. G. T. Lewis of Sedalia is the guest of her husband's family in this city. Mrs. Ed. Burrell of Murphysboro, Ill., has been visiting St. Louis friends. Miss Nellie Norton of Topeka, Kan., is visiting St. Louis friends.

Mrs. Phil Norton of Milwaukee, is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. Jacquemin of this city.

RETURNS.

Mr. Ed. Sessions, formerly of this city, has returned from the south to remain permanently. Mr. John W. Turner of Garrison avenue has returned from a visit to his summer home at Arcadia. Miss Lucy Chadbourne of Washington avenue has returned from Lebanon Springs. Mrs. B. P. P. Clement, who was visiting friends in Hannibal, has returned to her home in this city. Mrs. Harvey P. Miller, who has been visiting Mrs. J. D. Faulkner of Lebanon, returned home the first of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman have returned from Lexington, Mo., where they went to attend the large ball given at the McGraw mansion. Miss Adele Price has returned home. Mrs. Elmer S. Finney of this city has returned after a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bedford of Evansville. Miss Mary Robertson has returned from a visit to Edwardsville. Miss Fannie Woodward has returned from a visit to Miss Sophia Wier of Belleville.

Mrs. Ada Metcalf and daughters, Mabel and Grace, will return this week from a visit to her parents at St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Olcott have returned from a tour of the Pacific slope. Mrs. George S. McGraw has returned from Lexington, Mo. Mrs. Helen Partridge is expected home this week from Texas. Miss Morse, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Warner, has returned to her home at Paris. Mr. John Smith has returned from a visit to friends at Auburn, Ind. Mrs. J. B. Slattery has returned from New Mexico. Mr. John Hardin has returned from a short visit to Kentucky friends. Mrs. Ellis Walworth has returned from a visit to Hot Springs. Mr. and Mrs. James Green will return from Florida the latter part of this week. Miss Florence Thiel has returned after a visit to Chicago friends. Mrs. Dr. J. W. Lawrence has returned from a visit to Mississippi. Mrs. Joseph Garneau has returned from a visit to her son, Mr. Joseph Garneau, and wife, at Omaha. Mrs. Harvey P. Miller, who has been visiting Mrs. J. D. Faulkner at Lebanon Springs, has returned home. Mrs. Mary Sloan and her daughter, Mrs. Sylvester Fratte, are expected home from New Orleans. Miss Clara Hopkins has returned from Hot Springs. Miss Clara Brown, who has been visiting Mr. Mullens at Little Rock, is expected home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pierce have returned from Lebanon Springs. Mrs. D. L. Green has returned from a visit to her son, Mr. Anthony Blaisdell, who has returned from Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kaufman have returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. G. Taylor has returned from Kansas City. Mrs. Wm. H. Harris has returned from a short visit to friends at Chicago. Mrs. M. P. S. Bors has returned from Lebanon Springs. Miss Eugenia Dowdall has returned from a visit to Mrs. Frank Le Faire. Mrs. Wm. Kline returned on Wednesday from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Joseph Stewart.

DEPARTURES.

Mrs. Elbridge Goddard left last Tuesday for Florida, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Trumbo. Mrs. Chapman, who has been visiting Mrs. L. D. Patterson, has returned to her home in the East. Miss Clemence Garneau and Miss Lou Ridgely have gone to Omaha to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garneau. Mr. W. A. Jordan has gone to Lebanon Springs for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Kate G. Bean left last week to visit her friend, Mrs. O. M. McKee. Mrs. George H. Best, accompanied by her niece, left on Wednesday by steamer for New Orleans. Miss Sykes leaves for her home in Nashville, Tenn., after a short visit to relatives. Mrs. Wm. Lennox, after spending ten days in the city, has returned home. Mrs. T. D. Kimball has gone to Lebanon, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. John Booth have gone to Ocean Springs. Mr. M. Dougherty left last week for Lebanon Springs. Mrs. J. H. Wyeth and Mrs. Payne left last week to visit Mrs. Charles R. Lewis. Mrs. J. D. Thoms left the latter part of the week to return to her home in Texas. Mrs. W. L. Green has gone to Pueblo, Miss Saunders, who has been spending the winter with her relatives at Chelms, plans to leave tomorrow for her home in Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sterling have gone to Lebanon Springs. Miss Laura Bailey left last week to visit Jefferson City friends. Miss Belle Trevor has gone to Lebanon Springs to visit Mrs. John Gunn who has gone to Louisiana to visit Mrs. E. B. Rull. Miss Birdie Rosenfield leaves in a few days to return to her home in New York. Miss Annie Fulton left last week for Denver, Colo. Mrs. C. J. Kenny and her daughter left on Tuesday for their home at Ashland, O. Mrs. J. Dwyer left last week for Lebanon Springs. Mrs. A. B. Teasdale went last week with a party to Lebanon Springs. Miss Annie Greene returned a short visit to St. Louis friends, left last week for Cape Girardeau.

Mrs. Jennie W. Dean leaves on Thursday for a three-months' round of visits to friends in Sedalia, New York, Cincinnati and Washington. Mr. Walcott is the guest of his brother, Wilson MacDonald, the sculptor, and whilst in Cincinnati she will be entertained by her cousin, Prof. Thomas Noble, the Superintendent of the School of Fine Arts in that city. Mrs. Dean will also go with her young nephew to West Point.

Mrs. Fred Crunden left a few days ago for California, where she will spend the summer. She is just recovering from a severe illness and will leave for Lebanon Springs as soon as she is able. Mrs. F. Walter has gone to Memphis to visit her son, Mr. Albert Walter, who lives in that city. Mrs. Margery Ware of Washington avenue expects to go to California in the summer to visit her friend, Miss W. A. Wade. Mrs. Ben Friedman of Fitch, Mo., has returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives here. Miss Belle Trevor has gone to Lebanon on a visit to Miss Archie Dean. Miss Flora Jewell, who it was stated last week was still the guest of Mrs. Mary Nixon of Webster Groves, left St. Louis some time ago to visit other friends and relatives. Mrs. E. A. Eckle, who has been visiting Mrs. Wm. Lee of Boston, has returned home accompanied by two young gentlemen who have lately completed their medical course in this city, Messrs Walter Eckle and Mr. Albert Walter.

GOSIPS.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ford of Delmar avenue gave a handsome dinner party last week in compliment to Mrs. Chittenden, who is spending a few weeks in the city.

Hotel Beers, has just purchased the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones and family on West Pine street and will take possession April 15.

Mr. Samuel Dennison of Evansville, Ind., arrived with his bride on Friday and will spend a fortnight with St. Louis relatives.

Dr. John W. Wallace of Brunswick lately made a short visit to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. P. Gordon of Wichita, Kan., have come to St. Louis to make it their future home.

Those who value the natural teeth more than artificial should patronize Dr. Holmes, of the old building. Most perfect dental office in the city.

A wedding of interest in high German society, set for this spring, is that of Miss Kate Grisedeck, who marries a gentleman from Omaha.

Miss Marie B. Pogue, who has been visiting relatives at Courtland, Ala., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Turner and Miss Lucy Turner, who have been spending a month at Old Point Comfort, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Means Rhett, former residents of this city, but now living in New Orleans, are rejoicing over the addition of a second little daughter to their household, Rosa Means Rhett.

Dr. and Mrs. Hastings of Warren, Mass., have been spending several days in St. Louis, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sperry, en route for the West to their Eastern home.

The marriage of Miss Hausman, a South Side society belle, is announced to take place in May.

Mr. B. Blackmar has leased for three years a handsome suburban place near Webster Groves, of which he will take possession in May.

Mr. Samuel Kennard left last week for the East, and is in New York City.

Mrs. John Massengale is still visiting her relatives in Tennessee. She was called by the illness of her brother.

The Misses Studley will leave in May for a foreign tour. They will join a party of friends and remain abroad for three weeks.

Mrs. T. D. Kimball is making a visit of a few weeks to friends at Lebanon, Mo. She will return home in time for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooster and their little son are visiting her brother's family at Cohoes, N. Y. They spent the winter season at Albany.

Miss Bertie Sloan, who has been making a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. F. Heaberville, is called by the illness of her brother.

Miss Ally Ricker's marriage will take place at the family residence at Fulton, Mo., April 8. She has recently returned from the East, and has been making a visit to Mrs. Little of Westminster place.

Miss Burd Garrison is home from a visit to her friend, Mrs. Mayhew of Kansas City.

Mrs. Charles Ross and daughter have returned from a visit to Cairo, E. Pa. Tex.

Miss May Prather has been spending some weeks in Texas, where she joined her mother, who has been spending the winter there. She will return in time for Miss Ricker's wedding.

Mrs. E. V. P. Ritter has been detained in the city longer than she expected, and will not go to New Orleans until the 1st of April. Her little son is convalescent.

Mrs. Francis T. Bryan and her sister, Mrs. Samuel B. Churchill of Louisville, and her niece, the Misses Cowling of Louisville, have returned home after spending a fortnight delightfully at Lebanon Springs.

Mrs. C. M. Burks has returned from a visit to Jefferson City and will be in Europe early in May to be absent all summer.

Mrs. J. A. Taussig of the South Side will entertain next Tuesday the Rubenstein Club. Miss Margaret Hodgett has returned from a charming visit to Galveston and is expecting a visit from some young lady friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Norris and her mother, Mrs. Garrison, will soon return to St. Louis to reside. They have been spending the past year in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Higginson returned from Lebanon after a short stay. They had anticipated, after a few weeks at home, Mrs. Higginson will go to Bloomington and Des Moines to visit her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Jones arrived last week from St. Joe to make a little visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hammett, prior to their giving up their home.

Col. and Mrs. John O'Fallon and Miss Martin are at Lebanon Springs, the latter lady being convalescent and very much benefited by the waters after her serious and tedious illness of several months.

Miss Bessie Kennerly is expected home in a few days from Mobile, Ala., where she has been delightfully entertained all winter by her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones will give their house on West Pine street on the 15th of April and will probably take a suite of apartments at Gerard's new hotel on grand avenue.

Mrs. Charles Cotton will join the throng of European tourists who will be leaving here in the month of May to spend the summer on the Continent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Noel are home again after spending a fortnight at Lebanon Springs.

Miss Ella Moores will spend the spring and summer months with her grandparents in Mobile.

Miss Mamie Eaton, who has been with relatives in Mobile, is now at one of the golf coast resorts.

Mr. M. McKinney is home from a visit to Elkhart, Ky.

Mr. Charlie Bailey returned home from the West a week or two ago, having been greatly benefited by the climate of the Pacific slope. After a little stay with his parents he will return to the far West for the summer.

Mrs. Judge Boyle and her daughters, Misses Lora and Florence Boyle, have gone to the Southern resorts.

Mrs. Wm. N. Houser and family, after spending a fortnight at Lebanon Springs, have returned home. Mrs. Chadbourne and her daughters decided to remain there a little longer.

Miss Witherspoon of Louisville, who has been visiting Miss Katharine Thompson of Morgan street, spent last week with Misses Marie and Bessie Bond at their home on Grand avenue.

Mrs. Willis Howe, with her children, is still located in Paris. During the summer she will make a tour of Germany and Switzerland.

Mrs. P. A. Stephens, who has been making a visit to her aunt, Mrs. H. Ellis of San Angelo, Tex., is expected home this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Kendrick of Page avenue have given up their home and gone to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucy Ellis, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Fisher, at her new home on Lindell boulevard, will leave soon to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Smith, who has been at school here for some time past. She has returned to her home at Rolla, Mo.

Mrs. Nelson De Pew of St. Louis is visiting by her husband, Mr. Albert Lyon, of this city is visiting the family of Mr. James R. Gonow of Decatur.

Miss Blanche Rector of this city is visiting her aunt at Belleville, Mo. Mrs. John W. Smith, who was visiting her person on Missouri street, has returned to her home in Kentucky. Mrs. Laura Anderson has returned to Columbia, accompanied by her husband, Mr. George Anderson, and her sister, Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Ewing of this city.

Mrs. George Miller of Richmond, Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Finn. Miss Loe of New York is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Rice, and Mrs. D. E. Martin of Cincinnati are visiting Kirkwood friends; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Lewis arrived last week to visit her parents; Miss Stella Bodman arrived on Tuesday from Marshall, Mo. to visit St. Louis relatives. Mrs. Chapman of Boston has been making a visit to Mrs. L. D. Patterson. Miss Christine Woodward of Cairo is visiting St. Louis friends. Miss Kate and Miss Mattie Plant are spending a few weeks at Lebanon Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ford of Delmar avenue gave a handsome dinner party last week in compliment to Mrs. Chittenden, who is spending a few weeks in the city.

Hotel Beers, has just purchased the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones and family on West Pine street and will take possession April 15.

Mr. Samuel Dennison of Evansville, Ind., arrived with his bride on Friday and will spend a fortnight with St. Louis relatives.

Dr. John W. Wallace of Brunswick lately made a short visit to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. P. Gordon of Wichita, Kan., have come to St. Louis to make it their future home.

Those who value the natural teeth more than artificial should patronize Dr. Holmes, of the old building. Most perfect dental office in the city.

A wedding of interest in high German society, set for this spring, is that of Miss Kate Grisedeck, who marries a gentleman from Omaha.

Miss Marie B. Pogue, who has been visiting relatives at Courtland, Ala., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Turner and Miss Lucy Turner, who have been spending a month at Old Point Comfort, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Means Rhett, former residents of this city, but now living in New Orleans, are rejoicing over the addition of a second little daughter to their household, Rosa Means Rhett.

Dr. and Mrs. Hastings of Warren, Mass., have been spending several days in St. Louis, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sperry, en route for the West to their Eastern home.

The marriage of Miss Hausman, a South Side society belle, is announced to take place in May.

Mr. B. Blackmar has leased for three years a handsome suburban place near Webster Groves, of which he will take possession in May.

Mr. Samuel Kennard left last week for the East, and is in New York City.

Mrs. John Massengale is still visiting her relatives in Tennessee. She was called by the illness of her brother.

The Misses Studley will leave in May for a foreign tour. They will join a party of friends and remain abroad for three weeks.

Mrs. T. D. Kimball is making a visit of a few weeks to friends at Lebanon, Mo. She will return home in time for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooster and their little son are visiting her brother's family at Cohoes, N. Y. They spent the winter season at Albany.

Miss Bertie Sloan, who has been making a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. F. Heaberville, is called by the illness of her brother.

Miss Ally Ricker's marriage will take place at the family residence at Fulton, Mo., April 8. She has recently returned from the East, and has been making a visit to Mrs. Little of Westminster place.

Miss Burd Garrison is home from a visit to her friend, Mrs. Mayhew of Kansas City.

Mrs. Charles Ross and daughter have returned from a visit to Cairo, E. Pa. Tex.

Miss May Prather has been spending some weeks in Texas, where she joined her mother, who has been spending the winter there. She will return in time for Miss Ricker's wedding.

Mrs. E. V. P. Ritter has been detained in the city longer than she expected, and will not go to New Orleans until the 1st of April. Her little son is convalescent.

Mrs. Francis T. Bryan and her sister, Mrs. Samuel B. Churchill of Louisville, and her niece, the Misses Cowling of Louisville, have returned home after spending a fortnight delightfully at Lebanon Springs.

Mrs. C. M. Burks has returned from a visit to Jefferson City and will be in Europe early in May to be absent all summer.

Mrs. J. A. Taussig of the South Side will entertain next Tuesday the Rubenstein Club. Miss Margaret Hodgett has returned from a charming visit to Galveston and is expecting a visit from some young lady friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Norris and her mother, Mrs. Garrison, will soon return to St. Louis to reside. They have been spending the past year in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Higginson returned from Lebanon after a short stay. They had anticipated, after a few weeks at home, Mrs. Higginson will go to Bloomington and Des Moines to visit her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Jones arrived last week from St. Joe to make a little visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hammett, prior to their giving up their home.

Col. and Mrs. John O'Fallon and Miss Martin are at Lebanon Springs, the latter lady being convalescent and very much benefited by the waters after her serious and tedious illness of several months.

Miss Bessie Kennerly is expected home in a few days from Mobile, Ala., where she has been delightfully entertained all winter by her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones will give their house on West Pine street on the 15th of April and will probably take a suite of apartments at Gerard's new hotel on grand avenue.

Mrs. Charles Cotton will join the throng of European tourists who will be leaving here in the month of May to spend the summer on the Continent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Noel are home again after spending a fortnight at Lebanon Springs.

Miss Ella Moores will spend the spring and summer months with her grandparents in Mobile.

Miss Mamie Eaton, who has been with relatives in Mobile, is now at one of the golf coast resorts.

Mrs. P. A. Stephens, who has been making a visit to her aunt, Mrs. H. Ellis of San Angelo, Tex., is expected home this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Kendrick of Page avenue have given up their home and gone to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucy Ellis, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Fisher, at her new home on Lindell boulevard, will leave soon to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Smith, who has been at school here for some time past. She has returned to her home at Rolla, Mo.

Mrs. Nelson De Pew of St. Louis is visiting by her husband, Mr. Albert Lyon, of this city is visiting the family of Mr. James R. Gonow of Decatur.

Miss Blanche Rector of this city is visiting her aunt at Belleville, Mo. Mrs. John W. Smith, who was visiting her person on Missouri street, has returned to her home in Kentucky. Mrs. Laura Anderson has returned to Columbia, accompanied by her husband, Mr. George Anderson, and her sister, Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Ewing of this city.

Mrs. George Miller of Richmond, Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Finn. Miss Loe of New York is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Rice, and Mrs. D. E. Martin of Cincinnati are visiting Kirkwood friends; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Lewis arrived last week to visit her parents; Miss Stella Bodman arrived on Tuesday from Marshall, Mo. to visit St. Louis relatives. Mrs. Chapman of Boston has been making a visit to Mrs. L. D. Patterson. Miss Christine Woodward of Cairo is visiting St. Louis friends. Miss Kate and Miss Mattie Plant are spending a few weeks at Lebanon Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ford of Delmar avenue gave a handsome dinner party last week in compliment to Mrs. Chittenden, who is spending a few weeks in the city.

Hotel Beers, has just purchased the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones and family on West Pine street and will take possession April 15.

Mr. Samuel Dennison of Evansville, Ind., arrived with his bride on Friday and will spend a fortnight with St. Louis relatives.

Dr. John W. Wallace of Brunswick lately made a short visit to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. P. Gordon of Wichita, Kan., have come to St. Louis to make it their future home.

Those who value the natural teeth more than artificial should patronize Dr. Holmes, of the old building. Most perfect dental office in the city.

A wedding of interest in high German society, set for this spring, is that of Miss Kate Grisedeck, who marries a gentleman from Omaha.

Miss Marie B. Pogue, who has been visiting relatives at Courtland, Ala., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Turner and Miss Lucy Turner, who have been spending a month at Old Point Comfort, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Means Rhett, former residents of this city, but now living in New Orleans, are rejoicing over the addition of a second little daughter to their household, Rosa Means Rhett.

Dr. and Mrs. Hastings of Warren, Mass., have been spending several days in St. Louis, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sperry, en route for the West to their Eastern home.

The marriage of Miss Hausman, a South Side society belle, is announced to take place in May.

Mr. B. Blackmar has leased for three years a handsome suburban place near Webster Groves, of which he will take possession in May.

Mr. Samuel Kennard left last week for the East, and is in New York City.

Mrs. John Massengale is still visiting her relatives in Tennessee. She was called by the illness of her brother.

The Misses Studley will leave in May for a foreign tour. They will join a party of friends and remain abroad for three weeks.

Mrs. T. D. Kimball is making a visit of a few weeks to friends at Lebanon, Mo. She will return home in time for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooster and their little son are visiting her brother's family at Cohoes, N. Y. They spent the winter season at Albany.

Miss Bertie Sloan, who has been making a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. F. Heaberville, is called by the illness of her brother.

Miss Ally Ricker's marriage will take place at the family residence at Fulton, Mo., April 8. She has recently returned from the East, and has been making a visit to Mrs. Little of Westminster place.

Miss Burd Garrison is home from a visit to her friend, Mrs. Mayhew of Kansas City.

Mrs. Charles Ross and daughter have returned from a visit to Cairo, E. Pa. Tex.

Miss May Prather has been spending some weeks in Texas, where she joined her not be susceptible of prompt and amicable settlement, but the fact remained that they were not settled at yesterday's conference, and the fact remained that the strike would have to last at least two hours of the meeting was that of the discharge of the Brotherhood conductors from the Missouri Pacific Southwestern system and the demand of the Grievance Committee for their reinstatement. The question, therefore, was not one of the understanding of the future policy of the Gould lines towards the Brotherhood. It was the question that was still left open when the committee returned to the strike, and it is this question alone which will precipitate the strike believed to be now contemplated.

The committee positively declined to discuss the conference, but the

the City Council which closed at 12 o'clock last night, a franchise was voted a company for an electric street car line for a period of twenty years. The plant is to cost $5,000. Recently the free delivering of mail was put into operation.

There is a delightful little essay on Alexander Dumas, delightful because it is so

Mrs. Barr's most important recent story

STRAUSS' Aristotypes endure for ages.
Strauss' Aristotypes are perfectly charming

Cure your cough with Leslie's Coughsire.
Price 25 cents at all druggists.

...larger than the ordinary boot or shoe, and preferably of rubber, but with the sole surface roughened, as shown in the drawing in any approved manner. The upper section may be provided with a draw-string or equivalent device, to draw the bath receptacle in position, and enable the patient to walk about while using the bath receptacle being supplied with water, and as desired for the bath, the natural movement of the foot therein is designed to increase the contact and beneficial friction between the foot and the interior of the shoe with the medium of traction.

BERRY MITCHELL.

For $450 He Signs Away His Interests in This Broad Land.

A FEATURE IN THE CONTEST OVER PROPERTY LEFT BY WM. CHRISTIE.

John G. Taylor's Executor and Bondsmen Sued on Behalf of the Jackson Children by the Public Administrator—Divorces and Damages Prayed by Numerous Petitioners—Circuit Court Litigation.

Judge Klein, in Division No. 1 of the Circuit Court, yesterday morning and afternoon heard argument in the case of the heirs of Wm. Christie of St. Louis, a controversy over two blocks of land in the northern part of the city. The title of the case is not given above. Its real title would occupy a column by itself. Wm. Christie died in 1857, leaving the land to his wife for life. His daughter, Virginia, was taken ill at her father's death, and if Virginia had heirs of her body at her death they would take the property in fee. If she had no heirs it was to go in fee to the heirs of his sons, Edmund and Howard, or either of them.

The widow and two sons died many years ago, and quite recently the daughter Virginia (Mrs. Virginia Smith), known to a large circle of friends and distant relatives as "Aunt Jennie," died, having enjoyed the property for forty years. She had no children and both of her brothers had died childless. Howard had married Miss Preston of Kentucky, and in his will he gave her all of his property. Wm. Preston, brother of Mrs. Howard Christie, bought her interest in the property now in controversy and sought in sundry proceedings to get a judicial affirmation of his title. He did not succeed. He is now dead and his heirs claim the property.

The three children named in the devise of this property are not his only children. He left four daughters besides Mrs. Smith and all are now dead. They all left numerous descendants. Berry Mitchell's mother was a daughter of William Christie and if it is determined that the title of the land belongs to Christie and Mrs. Smith to have children causes the property to revert to the heirs of William Christie, Berry Mitchell would be in it.

That is he would be in it for the benefit of John H. Robb. C. M. Napton, at one stage in the proceedings yesterday, introduced in the case the deed from Berry Mitchell to John H. Robb. W. E. Fisse, who represents other heirs of Wm. Christie, said he had a deed from Berry Mitchell covering his interest in this property.

"Suppose you read the description in your deed, Mr. Napton?" Judge Klein suggested. "I think, sir, it is broad enough for any purpose," the deed was read. It was a deed in which Berry Mitchell conveyed to John H. Robb "all of the grantor's property, real, personal or mixed, in the United States and Territories," for a consideration of $450. It appears that Mr. Fisse's deed, which was not so broad, was of a later date and it did not get into the case.

Judge Klein was the under-advocate.

Assistant John G. Taylor's executor, Public Administrator Charles A. Scudder brought three suits yesterday in the Circuit Court against Charles L. Moss, executor of the estate of John G. Taylor. The suits were brought by J. Collins, Lewis Thos. Springs, James Richardson and J. Clifford Richardson, for Joseph, Mary and Philip Jackson. The Jacksons were children of John G. Taylor and his wife. Taylor was their uncle and was appointed their guardian. The defendants W. H. Collins, James and J. C. Richardson, became executors of Taylor's estate. Taylor died in 1857. It is charged that Taylor converted to his own use the estates of his wards, that of Joseph amounting to $3,575, that of Mary to $2,488, and that of Philip to $2,488. Mr. Scudder wants judgment against the estate of Taylor and his bondsmen for these several amounts. This suit will recall the children for whom the Public Administrator is suing. Alice was living with Mr. Taylor. She ran away, and after a time returned to her father's house by some means thrust into a carriage and taken off. After a time an arrangement between Mr. Taylor and her friends was made, and she was returned to her father's house by the person who had carried her off. She lived there until Mr. Taylor died. Then she returned to Mrs. Broder's house. On her application Mr. Scudder was appointed her guardian, and he afterwards accepted the like office for her sister and brothers.

WANTS DAMAGES.
Frederick Dreckschmidt sued the Mound City Railway Co. for $1,000 damages. He says he was on Jan. 2, 1891, seated on a car drawn by four horses that was driving into a yard on Fourteenth street between Mulholland and Perry streets. A car belonging to the defendant company struck the wagon and knocked him off the seat, breaking several of his ribs.

Lacy Wood sued the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co. to recover $5,000 for personal injuries. She says she was crossing the River des Peres bridge at Howard's station and was struck by a locomotive and knocked into the water.

Joseph and Mary Taylor sued the Scherpe & Koken Architectural Iron Co. for $20,000 damages. Mrs. Taylor was injured by a fall from the tracks of the Missouri Pacific when a servant of the defendant drove over her. She received serious injuries.

Gottlieb Wolf sued J. C. Norden, a contractor on the Merchants' Terminal Railway Co. work, for $2,500 damages. He alleges that on May 23, 1890, a piece of timber from the defendant's work fell upon him, injuring him severely.

F. B. Stephens sued Joseph Specht. He says that on March 4, 1891, Mr. Specht beat and assaulted him without provocation. He asks for $5,000 damages.

SUITS ON BONDS.
Michael Roeder sued Robert F. Doerster and John M. Sellers for $5,000, the penalty of a bond, and $500 damages. Doerster contracted to build for $3,500 a house on California avenue, near Cherokee street, and gave bond with Sellers as surety. It is charged that Doerster did not build according to the specifications and left unpaid bills which Roeder was compelled to pay.

Frank Goodin sued in the name of the State of Missouri Michael Lynch, George Hafner and William Cullinane on Constable's bond for $1,000. It is charged that Lynch, the Constable, levied on some trunks, etc., Dec. 30, 1890.

John Rayland, Sheriff of St. Clair County, Ill., for Harvey L. Christie, assignee of the Post & Hart Coal Co., sued Charles Priesmeyer and Wm. S. Hill for $1,100 on reprieve bond.

QUARRELS OVER STOCK.
The Powerbelt Feed Brooming Co., limited, sues the defendant for breaching a stock in the plaintiff company to the amount of $1,000, on the ground that they obtained the stock by fraud. The company also wishes to direct the title to the stock out of the defendants.

The Consumers' Supply Co. sued the Greely-Burnham Grocery Co. for $25,000. The plaintiff claims that Dwight Freeway, acting for the defendant, agreed to furnish $25,000 as one-half of its paid up capital, and gave a check for the sum; that he afterward obtained possession of the check and cashed it. The company wants to compel Mr.

Tredway's company to carry out the contract.

APPLICANTS FOR DIVORCE.
Mary Miller asked for a divorce from John H. Miller. They were married Oct. 30, 1870, and separated twenty years and four months later. She charges him with keeping late hours and with calling her vile names. She withdrew from him evidences of affection, and he treated her to physical violence as a return.

Alphons Haas sued Justine Haas for divorce. They were married in September, 1879. They lived together four months, and then, he says, she fled with Julius Fastnacht.

EMPTIED HIS LAKE.
Joseph Gladi, formerly proprietor of the Planter's House, sued Young & Sons' Seed & Plant Co. for $15,000 damages. Mr. Gladi occupies the Bell place on Union and Page streets. Adjoining his place he had a lake which he claims was an ornament to the grounds and was also a valuable feature. He charges that the defendants inserted a siphon in the lake and caused all the water in the lake to flow out through the pipes.

MISCELLANEOUS CONTESTS.
The Holden Water Co. sued John B. Wm. R. and Va. Quigley for $267.94 damages, for failure to carry out a contract to erect a dam and a water wheel.

Anna Maria Kessler, Wm. Kessler and others sued Henry Hildebrand, a minor, to partition an estate.

Oliver H. Labadie and Robert Labadie sued John Finigan in ejectment for $1,000 damages and $500 monthly rent.

At one time the others sued in the name of the State of F. L. Haydel and Jules A. Casey on an attachment bond for $150.

Park Bros. & Co., limited, sued the Western Bank Trust and Manufacturing Co. to recover $2,488.48 for goods delivered.

John Bambrick wants to charge a building belonging to Frederick Spengler and Miss Elmshoeffer with a mechanic's lien for $207.50.

The Western Boot & Shoe Co. sued B. Gannon for specific performance of an agreement to lease to it the fourth and fifth floors of a building at Nineteenth and Olive streets.

Merrifield W. Huff, receiver of the Folke-Hall Medicine Co., sued James K. and E. A. Hall and John S. Stone to recover $9,000 for conversion of personal property, drugs, medicines, etc.

Elizabeth S. Bailey and her husband, Chas. H. Bailey, sued Alex. Smith, S. C. Seals and G. Pegram to recover $5,400 on a judgment and for costs. The judgment was secured in May, 1871.

M. Davis sued the Reading Fire Insurance Co. on a fire insurance policy for $1,000. The policy was on furniture and wearing apparel in 2614 Glasgow avenue, which was destroyed by fire Dec. 26, 1890.

EAST ST. LOUIS AND BELLEVILLE.
Bringing Dirt From the Bluffs to Fill in Low Places—Notes.

Arrangements are being made for the transportation of dirt by the railroad from the bluffs at Pittsburg Station to East St. Louis to be used for filling purposes. A St. Louis contracting firm has shipped a steam shovel to the bluffs to be used for the purpose. As soon as the machine can be put in position alongside the Air Line Railroad tracks. There is an unlimited supply of dirt on the bluffs, and it is expected to fill up several cities like East St. Louis.

Chief of Police Walsh received a telegram yesterday afternoon from Chief Thomas M. Lyons of St. Louis, asking him to hold the two boys arrested at the Relay Depot on suspicion of having stolen $300. Chief Speers says he will start an officer to East St. Louis to take charge of the boys.

His telegram he speaks of as Withers and Allen. They gave the names of Thompson and Seagr to the East St. Louis officers.

Engineer Bladon, who was employed to lay out the new Catholic cemetery for St. Patrick's and St. Mary's Churches, has completed the work and will shortly present a plan of the ground to the mayor and the Board of Health. The cemetery is located on the bluffs. It will be called Mount Carmel Cemetery.

At the roof of the St. Louis steel-works on St. Clair avenue caught fire yesterday afternoon and an alarm was turned in which brought out both the fire and police departments. The fire was extinguished before any material damage could be done.

At a meeting of the Anti-Administration party in the Fourth Ward last night ex-Governor Yonahime was nominated for Mayor.

The male members of St. Mary's Catholic congregation will hold a meeting to-morrow evening at the residence of Mr. J. C. Long, at C. C. av. in East St. Louis, the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Winstanley.

City Treasurer Martell, who is ex-officio collector of taxes for East St. Louis, has closed his tax-books yesterday. Taxes on East St. Louis property must hereafter be paid in Belleville.

Wm. Flickinger, a farmer of St. Jo, Mo., and his wife were arraigned before Justice Medard of Belleville yesterday on the charge of incest. Flickinger's wife is his first cousin. Her maiden name was Dora Ruhl.

David Ross of Springfield addressed a good sized crowd of laboring men last night at the Court-house, on the subject of organization. He urged the formation of a union of the Viopeller property on West Main street, and will erect a brick business building on the site of the present structure.

David Ross of Springfield addressed a good sized crowd of laboring men last night at the Court-house, on the subject of organization. He urged the formation of a union of the Viopeller property on West Main street, and will erect a brick business building on the site of the present structure.

The West End Juvenile Band gave a concert and ball last night at the City Hall.

Adolph Glaser has removed to Missouri with his family.

TO MOVE FURTHER WEST.
The New St. George's Church Will Probably Be Built on Grand Avenue.

St. George's Episcopal church, which was badly damaged by fire last Friday night, will probably be offered for sale in a few days, as the trustees have about decided to move further west. The site of the new church has not been selected as yet, but in all probability it will be on or near Grand avenue.

The congregation of St. George's church, which was organized in 1845 on the northwest corner of Seventh and Locust streets, and from there they moved in 1873 to Beaumont and Chestnut streets, will hold a service this morning and again this evening in Addison Hall, corner of Seventeenth and Olive streets, and will then announce where the regular church services will be held hereafter.

At the Standard the Louise Dempsey Bar-

AT THE LOCAL THEATERS.

NEWS OF INTEREST GLEANED FROM DRAMATIC FIELDS.

Stuart Robson Discusses the Burlesque of Other Days—Attractions Billed for the Present Week—The Lilliputians and Their St. Louis Success—Coulisse Chat.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

Stuart Robson's return engagement at the Grand last week in "The Henrietta" was a particularly successful one. It proved both the popularity of the star and the drawing powers of the play itself, and the deliciously correct satire of New York life and the club existence of the young men of Gotham was recognized and appreciated by hundreds for the second time, and by many others who had failed to see it earlier in the season.

As Bertie, the Lamb, Robson struck a character that seemed to have been especially suitable to him, and his acting carries the amusing suggestion with it that he enjoys the delineation of Bertie's laughable virtues and weaknesses to fully as great a degree as does the audience. He enters into the spirit of the part so thoroughly, indeed, that the veteran comedian and the tender young Lamb are in danger of becoming a composite character in the eyes of the public, and of losing the identity of the two distinct personalities.

leque Co. opens a week's engagement with a matinee and evening performance to-day. The company is said to be strong in specialty features, with several good character artists and song and dance teams, and a first-class programme of burlesque entertainment will be offered to the standard patrons. The week's engagement of Katie Emmett in "Walls of New York" was an excellent one.

Stuart Robson stood Wednesday afternoon in the lobby of the Grand Opera-house. He was watching the ladies as they flocked into the theatre, and he was looking at them with the eyes of a lover. He was looking at them with the eyes of a lover. He was looking at them with the eyes of a lover.

"If you should ask me," he said, "who is the original of Bertie, the Lamb, I would reply that I don't know. I have seen the original here and there. At least, I have caught glimpses of him. He looks like a cat; he talks about 'us fellows at the club'; he is simple and good-hearted. But in the main the character is a burlesque."

A comedian who considers himself too good for burlesque has no right to be ranked as a comedian at all. How many actors of this generation, who are called comedians, would sing and dance with the best of them. And who was more applauded in the travesties of other days than my old partner?

"Did the burlesques of those days differ from the commonly accepted article of today?" "Witely. The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting. In fact he made his auditors laugh at his own expense, and to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing his speech what he was carrying out in his acting."

The actors followed their models for imitation in dress, action and speech, and instances are known where the actor held his listeners by his wonderful imitations of legitimate methods so as to render them oblivious of the fact that he was ridiculing

ST. LOUIS, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 22, 1891.

KISSED HIS BRIDE.

Why a Young Californian's Wife Deserted Him in St. Louis.

AFFECTION DISPLAYED IN A FULLMAN CAR CAUSES TROUBLE.

A Bride of Three Days Quarrels With Her Husband for a Lascivious Cause and Summons a Constable to Recover Her Trunk—Reconciliation at the Union Depot Last Evening.

A little incident occurred on the Missouri Pacific train yesterday which should prove a terrible warning to newly-married men not to fall too deeply in love with their brides or permit themselves to become too demonstrative in their display of affection. It was but a kiss and yet it rent harshly asunder the hearts of two young and loving persons. They had only been married three days but the rash young bridegroom daringly attempted to kiss his blushing bride. This unseemly conduct on his part was more than her sensitive nature could stand, and she promptly resented it by leaving his side, she left him, intending to remain away from him forever and ever, but she changed her mind and returned to her loving hubby.

Both were from California. J. C. Carney, the young bridegroom, is the son of the owner of an extensive orange grove and fruit plantation near the city of San Diego, and the bride, Miss Susan V. Mayberry, who is the daughter of Capt. Robert Mayberry, a wealthy neighbor of the Carneys. The young people were thrown much into each other's society and Carney manifested a most pronounced preference for the fruit grown on Capt. Mayberry's place to that which was to be found on his own father's plantation. He was particularly fond of the daughter, who was being raised at the Captain's house, and she was not at all displeased by the young man's attentions. In fact she encouraged them, and finally Carney summoned up sufficient courage to ask the wealthy captain for the privilege of plucking from his plantation his chief attraction, the fair Miss Susan. His desire was granted, and last Wednesday the young couple were wedded at San Diego amid much pomp and display. Both families are prominent in that section of the state and the wedding was quite a social event. An extensive bridal tour was arranged and the happy young pair left immediately on a train for the East. They came by the southern Pacific route and by way of Kansas City to St. Louis, where they determined to make their first stop.

KISSED HER ON THE CAR. Carney had loved and courted his wife for three years and now that she was at last his joy knew no bounds. They traveled from Kansas City to St. Louis during the day, arriving here yesterday afternoon on the Missouri Pacific fast mail. As the happy young groom gazed into the liquid eyes of his adored one his admiration knew no limits and, forgetting himself, he clasped her affectionately in his arms and planted a loving kiss on her cherry lips. The fullman sleeping car, in which the young couple were riding, was filled with passengers and somehow they all seemed to enjoy the kiss fully as much as Carney himself, and that is saying a great deal. A titter went up all around and the crimson blood rushed to the bride's cheeks. She was the one person in the car who did not seem to enjoy the kiss. It was an unpardonable piece of presumption and extremely impolite for Carney to have attempted to kiss a young lady to whom he had only been married three days, and she soon made him realize the fact. To have kissed her in so short a time would have been bad enough if they were alone, but to have done so in the presence of other people was certainly a most unheard-of piece of familiarity on Carney's part. The young bride sprang up from her seat beside the groom in the drawing-room of the car which they were occupying, and declared in the hearing of all present that she would leave him forever the instant the train reached St. Louis. The bridegroom told her that she could not get her trunk, three in number, as he held the checks. In a most defiant manner the furious young bride informed her rude and forward darling that she was fully capable of taking care of herself. The young couple thereupon exchanged some very harsh and angry words. They were not so careful as they might have been as the selection of their language, much to the consternation of the numerous passengers. The bride, taking herself to one corner of the room, turned her head to one side and would not notice, even by a glance, the sulking hubby in another corner. The couple were to have stopped over in St. Louis for a day, and when the train pulled into the Union Depot the bride took a cab for up-town.

SEEKING LEGAL JUSTICE. Wishing to get her trunk, and not thinking of the publicity that would come, she asked to be directed to a Justice of the Peace's office. She was taken to that of James McCallister. At her request Constable Benjamin Brady made out a writ for her. He tried hard to persuade her that it was not the proper action, but the angered woman would not listen to argument.

"Didn't he," she began, her eyes snapping with anger, "kiss me right before all those people and make me the laughing stock of the travelers? I just excused him, and he stumped her foot frequently to impress upon the counseling constable that she meant business. But Mr. Brady had a scheme. He desired to get the depot to take possession of her worldly goods. The nervous woman was in a hurry and she and Mr. Brady went flying to the depot by virtue of a promise to the coachman of an extra fee. During this ride the bride of only a few days broke down and began to cry. The constable told her that her husband had not meant anything, but was won by his love for her because the kiss. This consoled her to some degree, and she began to inquire if it were not possible to recall the reprieve.

"Certainly," said Mr. Brady. That was just what he wanted.

A HAPPY RECONCILIATION. Getting on the south side of the depot, Mr. Brady heard the bride say "there he is!" and suddenly leave his side and hurriedly hasten to that of a gloomy blue-looking gentleman who was trying to push a hole in "John" and "Susie." The people around in the immediate vicinity heard these exclamations, and looking around they saw a young woman sobbing with her face on the shoulder of a fine-looking young man. The man looked puzzled, but happy, while the lady was unconscious of all surroundings. She did not care who saw her now. All unpleasantness was forgotten. The couple had made up, but they did not kiss. Carney looked as if he would like to, but he had had one terrible experience and that was enough. Constable Brady took the document from his pocket and deliberately tore it to pieces. When the bride sobbed to say that his services were not needed he had disappeared. The young people, now thoroughly reconciled, began to make preparations to go to a hotel together, and decided that they would take their trunks with them. While they were making arrangements with the cabmen and expressmen, they were found by a Post-Dispatch reporter. When accosted on this subject the bridegroom at first denied that there was any truth in the statements in regard to the affair, but the blushes on the bride's face betrayed him, and he blandly acknowledged that he had been telling white lies.

HOW THE TROUBLE AROSE. "It was all caused by an unthoughtful action on my part," said the bridegroom. "We were sitting in the drawing-room and I kissed her. I didn't think of the people, and of course a titter went around the circle. Then my wife, fondly straightening herself up, 'had a perfect right to get angry. I agree with her and have been calling myself a fool for the past hour. Then to make matters worse I bawled words with her when I knew I was to blame, and thus deepened the chasm that was apparently opening up between us. As soon as my anger, caused by her cutting remark had died away, I wanted to go and ask her pardon, but was restrained by foolish pride. Even when I saw her driving away up town in the cab I wanted to call her back and it seemed as though something held me back and kept me from doing what was right in telling that I was in blame. "There is no use talking, that hour I spent waiting for my wife's return was the longest one that I have ever experienced. It seemed as though I could not think. But it was certain that she would return for her trunk, so I concluded that it would be best to remain where I was until her return. "Are you going to print this?" asked the bridegroom, as he was getting ready to jump into the cab. When told that such would most probably be the case, he turned to his wife and said that they could change their names for the time being and escape the publicity. He then ordered the cab driver to take them to the Lindell Hotel, where they registered as J. C. Wilson and wife, San Diego, Cal. The husband said that he and his bride, while originally intending to remain in the city for several days, would now most probably leave this morning, as they did not wish to gain any notoriety.

SOME OF THE SCRIP GOOD.

Azel B. Howard Says That Gov. Wood's Supply Certificates Will Be Paid.

Mr. Azel B. Howard thinks that some of the defense warrants issued by the state of Missouri in 1874-5 will be paid. In discussing the matter yesterday he said: "During the late war of the rebellion a considerable quantity of supplies such as forage, beef, pork, horses, mules, etc., were furnished the United States troops serving in the state of Missouri by loyal citizens, which up to 1874 were in many cases unpaid for by the United States. Claims for these supplies being filed by the individual claimants with the United States authorities, and being numerous and requiring a long time for examination by the auditing officers of the treasury, they suggested that the state authorities should take official cognizance of them in some shape, whereby they might be examined and adjudicated collectively, instead of in detail. Upon this suggestion the General Assembly of the State passed an act, entitled 'An act to audit and adjust the war debt of the state,' which was approved March 19, 1874. In pursuance of said act, three commissioners were appointed who audited and allowed a lot of said claims, for which certificates of state indebtedness were issued conditioned for the payment thereof when the claims should be allowed by the United States and the amounts paid to the state. Every other state but Missouri authorizing the acting Paymaster-General to audit and allow certain unpaid claims for services of the militia. He was imposed upon by parties filing with him a number of fraudulent service claims, muster and payroll representing services never rendered. The result of the allowance of fraudulent service claims which were filed with the United States authorities was to prejudice the good supply claims and to postpone the consideration of them by the auditing officers of the United States Treasury. The 'service' claims issued by the State of Missouri will never be paid by the United States authorities, but the 'supply' claims issued by this state on account of subsistence stores are accompanied by regular Quartermaster vouchers and will ultimately be paid by the United States authorities. The Hon. D. Heard, auditor for the state, collected from the Government a few months ago something over $500,000 of these identical supply claims and the proceeds were covered into the State Treasury. Every other state but Missouri has long ago collected and settled claims of this character against the general Government, and the proper action on the part of our Congressional Representatives would long ago have settled the $567,807 of supply claims now lying in the pigeon-holes of the Third Auditor of the United States Treasury, together with the proof of loyalty of the claimants and each backed by a voucher of the regular United States Quartermaster of the Missouri Department 1861-5. The action of the Missouri brokers for New York telegrams refer to can have no effect on the back tax appropriation, but nevertheless it is true that while Uncle Sam will not pay one dollar of the Missouri 'service' scrip he will pay every dollar of the Missouri 'supply' scrip when the matter is properly presented to the proper auditing officers of the Government."

STUART ROBSON INDISPPOSED.

Three Performances of the "Henrietta" Given Without Him.

Stuart Robson did not appear in the "Henrietta" at the Opera-house last night. This was the third consecutive performance from which he was absent. He did not appear Friday night or Saturday matinee. His understudy, Mr. McIntyre, did his best to make up for the absence of Mr. Robson and cared only to see him. They were not made more content by the fact that no announcement of Mr. Robson's absence came from the cast or apology for it was made. His name was upon the programme as usual. At the box office Hayden, Mr. Robson's manager, admitted that Robson had been absent three performances and said the star was sick. Mr. Hayden said Mr. Robson had been indisposed for some time, but that he had been dropped in small places and his absence from the stage had not been noticed. He had heard no complaint from the patrons of the theater and did not see the necessity for any announcement of the star's absence.

GREAT OWLS FEAST.

The March Festival of St. Louis Flock.

Next Saturday Evening the March festival of No. 1, St. Louis Flock, I. O. O. F., known as the Great Owls' Feast, will be given at the Masonic Temple, on Seventh and Market streets. The periodical sessions of the Owls are all notable affairs, but the March feast is the leader of them all, and the arrangements made and attractions secured for the approaching event, it will excel by far any entertainment yet given by the famous order. Among the attractions offered are an extra fine banquet and a professional theatrical performance. Specially imported invitations of the daintiest design have been issued.

COMFORT AND HAPPINESS!

Go hand in hand. One is impossible without the other. Therefore if you would be happy surround yourselves with comfort. By our liberal system of selling goods we enable everybody to do this without feeling the cost. This is Special Sale Week and those who wish anything in our line would do well to avail themselves of this great opportunity to purchase goods at their own prices. We do not offer to take

"A DISCOUNT OF 25 PER CENT OFF OF EVERYTHING IN OUR HOUSE"

Because discount MEANS NOTHING. It only shows that they ADD A BIG PRICE and take off a SMALL DISCOUNT. Below are some of OUR Prices:

$1.50.

$2.50.

$5.00.

Walnut or Oak, $7.50.

This Hard-wood Suit, $14.50.

2 Rooms Furnished Complete for $ 67.00

3 Rooms Furnished Complete for $107.00

4 Rooms Furnished Complete for $147.00 French Plate, $28.50.

Special Inducements to Parties Starting Housekeeping.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

SOME OF LAST YEAR'S CRACKS NOW IN TRAINING.

Rain at Gutterburg—The Results at Gloucester—A Promising Bidder for Trotting Honors—Notes and Comment from the Turf.

GUTTERBURG, March 21.—The inclement weather to-day had a bad effect upon the attendance at this course. There were very few of the half-holiday visitors present, but the regulars were out as usual. A cold, drizzling rain fell the greater part of the afternoon, compelling those present to stay in the inclosed betting-ring and grand stand. Mr. J. C. Carr handled the flag and sent the fields away in fairly good shape.

Mr. Carr, the lessee of the track, was seen in reference to the report that there would be no racing at Monmouth Park this summer. He said: "They have raced there for the last fifteen or twenty years with more or less interference, and I don't think they'll have any more trouble this year than heretofore. Furthermore, I am willing to wager that the flags will fly at Monmouth, despite rumors to the contrary."

First race, purse of $300, of which $50 to second, one mile—Pelham, first; Sallie Harper, second; New Castle, third. The flag dropped to a fair start, with Wm. Daly, Jr., in front and Harry Kuhl second. Sallie Harper at once took the lead and company with Pelham made the running to the far turn, where Pelham assumed command and led to finish, winning by two lengths. Time, 1:38 1/2.

Second race, purse of $300, of which $50 to second, winner to be sold at auction, six and a half furlongs—Sam Morse, first; Shotover, second; Oarsman, third. Time, 1:27. After some little delay the track was dropped with Emma J. the first to show. Sam Morse at once shot to the front and, opening a gap of four lengths, led throughout and won easily by ten lengths.

Third race, purse of $100, of which $25 to second, to carry 150 pounds, five furlongs—Civil Service, first; Vengur, second; Jed, third. Time, 1:36. Civil Service was the best of the start, with Vengur last. Civil Service soon opened up a gap of two lengths and led to a furlong from home, where Vengur began to close on him fast. Civil Service lasted long enough to win by a neck.

Fourth race, handicap, purse of $500 of which $100 to second, one mile and a sixteenth—Bancroft, first; Salvin, second; Churchill Clark, third. Time, 1:35. Bancroft, Clark and Salvin was the order at the start. On passing the stand Clark was in front by half a length. Bancroft then increased his lead and at the finish won handsily by three lengths.

Fifth race—Purse of $500 of which $5 to second, for 3-year-olds, six furlongs—Athletic fly, first; Frances, second; Nubian, third. Time, 1:31. Nubian got the best of the start, but it availed him nothing, as the Athletic fly soon took up the running and led throughout, winning by a length. Sixth race—Purse of $300, of which $50 to second, the runner to be sold at auction, seven furlongs—Monsieur and Lyander ran a dead heat. Marsh Redon was third.

A PROMISING TROTTER. BUFFALO, N. Y., March 21.—The pacer Macott, by Deciever, a son of Hambletonian 10, has been put into training for the summer's campaign. He has never been out, but last year tried the Buffalo track in 2:17, which is no limit of his speed. He has been extensively entered in stake engagements, among them 25,000 stakes which are to be run in Independence, Io., in August. The classes he will appear in are the 2:17 and 2:30. His owner, Percy Taylor, of this city, believes that he has in Macott a coming champion.

By his systematic and persistent interest in race racing last year, C. J. Hamlin has made this sport so popular that it looks now as though that particular style of racing will be one of the features of the Grand Circuit this summer. He lowered the track record to 2:15 last summer with Belle Hamlin and just now, he is not satisfied with what he has done, but will endeavor to break his own record this summer.

The first attempt will be made at the Grand Circuit meeting in Cleveland the last week in July. There is a great team race to take place in Cleveland for $5,000. The most celebrated pole teams in the country are entered and Mr. Hamlin is confident that he will make a great showing. His first team will undoubtedly be Lucetta, 2:25, and Nightingale, 2:24, both of whom can beat 1:30.

AT GLOUCESTER. GLOUCESTER, N. J., March 21.—First race, seven furlongs—Amalgam, first; Red Light, second; Morrisville, third. Time, 1:40 1/2.

Second race, three furlongs—Dead heat between Sadie Thompson and Henry Tyler; Bill Bailey, third. Time, 1:24. Run-off won by Henry Tyler, in 41 1/2.

Third race, four and one-half furlongs—Apomatox, first; India Rubber, second; Alderman Mac, third. Time, 1:04 1/2.

Fourth race, six and a half furlongs—Dead heat between Endurer and Can't Tell; Leo Bridget, third. Time, 1:39. Run-off won by Endurer in 1:38.

Fifth race, six and a half furlongs—Carnegie, first; Chieftain, second; Rover, third. Time, 1:38.

Sixth race, seven and a half furlongs—Groomsman, first; Kanerville, second; Frier, third. Time, 1:48.

AT NEW ORLEANS. NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—First race, half-mile Col. Cox, first; Select Knight, second; Florine, third. Time, 30.

Second race, five furlongs—Grey Eagle, first; St. Paul, second; Ranboy, third. Time, 1:20.

Third race, five and a half furlongs—Leoline H., first; Duchman, second; Siberia, third. Time, 1:49 1/2.

Fourth race, seven furlongs—Alphonse, first; Whittier, second; Redstone, third. Time, 1:30 1/2.

SIXTH RACE, SEVEN AND A HALF FURLONGS. HOUSE OF COMMONS STEEPCHASE. LONDON, March 21.—The House of Commons annual Point-to-Point steepchase was contested at Daventry to-day. Two cups were offered, one for heavy weights and one for light-weights. The distance was three and one-half miles over a stiff hunting country the course involving the crossing by the riders of a brook on the outward run and also on the home stretch. The heavy-weight race was won by Mr. Alfred Edward Pease, Member for Yorkshire, with Mr. R. T. Heilmann-Lodge, Member for Ayrington, division of North-East Lancashire, second. The cup for second was carried off by Lord H. Bentinck, Member for the Northwestern Division of Norfolk, with Mr. Walter Hume Long, Member for the Devises, Division of Wills, second.

THE SUGAR TRUST.

The New York State Senate Committee Still Pushing the Investigation.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The State Senate committee resumed its investigation this morning into the affairs of the Sugar Trust. The examination of William Dick of Dick & Meyer was continued, but little further information was elicited from him. H. O. Havemeyer, President of the American Sugar Refining Co., testified that the company was established in November, 1887. The condition was agreed upon that the constituent corporations should become corporations, and that the members of the trust should become simply stockholders. The corporations did not become partners of the trust, some one represented each corporation and signed the trust deed. Of the eighteen constituent corporations none were actually members of the trust. The trust was organized under a deed and became a party to it, but, as he understood, as a stockholder. He then went into the sugar refining company.

Mr. Havemeyer, resuming, said the capital was $50,000,000 before going over to the American Co. It was represented by real estate and the trust was formed it had no debts or assets. The constituent corporations borrowed capital, but that had nothing to do with the trust. The constituent corporations belonging to the sugar refining company kept books in their business. Several of the books will be produced on Monday. There were two branches of the business, the mercantile and refining, and the witness was principally connected with the mercantile. The trust ran itself. There were nine trustees. The statements made of the profits of the corporation witness said were accurate.

H. O. Havemeyer was again a witness at the afternoon session. The capital of the company with which the witness was connected was $50,000. He declined to say how many Trust certificates he got from the Trust for his stock. The committee went into secret session on this refusal, and decided that the question must be answered. The committee decided they would report to the Senate, and ask it to determine whether the trust should return answers to certain questions or not. The question was then continued for pecuniary benefit. It was not for the purpose of controlling prices or speculating in stock, nor for the control of the output, except beyond a damaging point. Investigation was then adjourned until Monday.

Strauss' Aristotypes are fashionable.

Caught in a Set of Rollers.

William Kriner had both hands caught in a set of rollers while at work on the Central Flaming-mill, Twentieth and Cass avenues, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The left hand was badly crushed, the bones of the fingers and wrist being crushed and broken, while the flesh was terribly lacerated. The fingers of the right hand were bruised and torn. Kriner is a single man, 28 years old and resides at 301 Carr street. He was attended by Dr. Jordan at the City Dispensary.

A GIGANTIC COMBINATION.

Street Car Interests in the Leading Cities to Be Amalgamated.

NEW YORK, March 21.—A syndicate of capitalists, English and American, in which ex-President Cleveland, Wm. T. Whitney, Daniel S. Lamont, and, it is said, a prominent Chicago street railway magnate, are interested, are reported to be pushing to completion a scheme which looks to the amalgamation of the street car interests of several of the leading cities in this country from New York to San Francisco. This syndicate, which, it is reported in certain financial circles, will have a capital of at least $50,000,000, seeks to control the principal street car lines of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, and to transfer as now in this way managed power into thoroughly equipped cable lines. The scheme was suggested by the growth in popularity of the cables as means of locomotion, and the first step toward its promotion was made when the Broadway syndicate of New York obtained franchises for the construction of cables on Broadway and Third Avenue, work upon which will soon be commenced.

CITY HALL BURGLARS.

The Mystery Surrounding Them Cleared Up by the Arrest of James Haggerty.

Detectives Viehle and Ziegler arrested James Haggerty late yesterday afternoon and solved the mystery surrounding the recent burglaries at the City Hall. Haggerty was found at work in a coal yard in the vicinity of Twentieth and Morgan streets. When taken to the Four Courts the prisoner confessed that he on three or four occasions entered the office of the Sewer Commissioner and stole tools of the value of $40. Haggerty was until a few weeks ago employed as a sub-janitor at the City Hall and in this way managed to obtain possession of duplicate keys, by which he obtained access to several of the offices. He acknowledged rummaging in two or three departments, but said he took nothing but a few hammers, wrenches, tape lines and other tools. He promised to show the officers where he disposed of the property. Haggerty is a single man, 28 years old, and lives at Fourteenth and Middle streets. He claims that the present is his first criminal offense. A warrant charging him with burglary was applied for to-morrow.

Stole Pig Iron.

Frank Stratton, a 15-year-old colored boy, is confined in the Holdover at the Four Courts. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Danaher and Freeman of the Central District, who will to-morrow swear out a warrant charging him with petit larceny. Stratton admits having stolen eleven pieces of pig iron from the Missouri Blast Furnace, and says he sold the material to a man named Brockaway, living in Carondelet.

lying-in hospital; well established this office.

ant in lying-in hospital; well established. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Partner in good paying jewelry business; young and practical man preferred; good salary. Add. 19, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Partner in small hotel; small capital required good chances for some party willing to devote time to business. Add. 19, this office. Ad. 23 WANTED—By a young lady, who desires to start in business, partner with money, who will put her capital in business in a steady way. Address 19, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Live young man with a little cash, to be employed in business in a steady way. Investment preferred. This is no humbug, but can be relied upon. O. K. Ad. A 19, this office. Ad. 23

WANTED TO EXCHANGE.

FOR EXCHANGE—A row of houses, all rented to good tenants; convenient to a line of cars; will take city lots or a suburban place. Address 5714
 N. 16th st. Add. 24, this office. Ad. 23
 FOR EXCHANGE—A large body of land near Corpus Christi, Tex. for a stock of general merchandise.
 Address J. W. Edie, San Antonio, Tex. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Old bicycles in exchange for New Mall Hartford, Union, Knight Cycle Co., 307 N. 10th.
 Add. 24, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—To exchange a "Kaiser" bicycle (newer than equal to new) for a building lot. Add. T.
 Add. 24, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—To exchange equity in first-class S-
 S. stock for a building lot.
 J. H. HOLDSBACH, 1015 N. 10th st. Ad. 23

MONEY WANTED.

MONEY WANTED—$6,000 on a highly improved tract, St. Louis, Mo., for $10,000. Will pay $1,000, $3,000, $2,000 and $2,000 of good collateral security. Inquire of D. J. Blanke, 415 Locust st. Ad. 23 MONEY WANTED—To buy good second-hand $500 for one year. Add. 18, this office. Address 18, this office. Add. 23

MISCELLANEOUS WANTS.

ASOLINE STOVES at Brandon's, 1516 Franklin
 st. Add. 23, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Block-case, dark wood; good order of work. Address 17, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Some nice family to adopt a girl baby
 6 days old. Add. 2055 Market. Ad. 23
 WANTED—To buy good second-hand 6-kg beer
 box. C. Dorthy, 607 Walnut st. Ad. 23
 WANTED—A good second-hand Messmer patent safe. Add. 23, this office. Ad. 23
 WANTED—Desks, offices and household furniture at People's Furniture Store, 907 Market st. Ad. 23 WANTED—Butcher's meat box; must be in good order and clean. Address 23, this office. Ad. 23 WANTED—$5,000 worth of second-hand feathers and furniture; highest prices paid. J. Sluskey, N. 7th st. Ad. 23

WANTED, KING CHARLES SPANIEL

Address, giving particulars, C 14, this office.

INCUBATORS

raising out spring chickens to-day. St. Louis Chick Co., 2131 Walnut st. 25

O. C.

3.00. Parsons will make 1 doz. finest Aristio Rued Cabinetas and one Imperial Fan and guarantee entire satisfaction! $3.00. 1407 Market st.

THEATRICAL.

GRAHAM DRAMATIC SCHOOL, 1524 Olive; stage dancing and ecstasies a specialty. Call for ms. 75

ANTED—Dramatic people, ladies and gentlemen. Call this week at Graham's elegance. 1524 Olive st. 75

ANTED—Ladies and gentlemen of dramatic ability by way of a relocation; the theater in stage business, being stage manager of a leading Eastern dramatic club fifteen years; directing and dramatic club of highest order; instruction furnished free to talented people. Address if this office. 75

BUSINESS CHANCES.

OR SALE—A mountain of copper, silver and gold or an interest to work it. H. challenges investment. Address Harry Nevins, Yuma, Ariz. 2

GOOD party with $3,000 cash to invest where no risk is incurred and take management of the business at St. Louis at salary of $100 per month and his interest as will pay $2,000 per year profit; we are now looking for a partner with $10,000. A1 reference; state religion; age and where you could begin.
Address the B. L. Mfg. Co., Cincinnati, O. 11

HORSES AND VEHICLES.

Wanted.

WANTED—Horse to winter. E. N. Benoist, 619
N. 6th st. 11

For Sale.

BEAUTIFUL black mare, fine saddle gait; lady can ride or drive. Next weather, Lucinda Higg, 12
N. Adams St. 12

OR SALE—A No. 1 horse. 2721 Adams st. 12

OR SALE—Horse and wagon. 3917 N. 26th st. 12

OR SALE—A 1 horse wagon. 100, 1807 N. 17th
st. 12

OR SALE—A good 2d-hand surrey, cheap. Apply
1313 Hickory st. 12

OR SALE—Sound, gentle buggy horse. 2517
Slattery st., rear. 12

OR SALE—One good mule; very cheap if sold at once. 200 S. 16th st. 12

OR SALE—A good horse, harness, buggy and wagon. 2700 N. Grand av. 12

OR SALE—Family horse and two-seated carriage, very cheap. Apply 412 Morgan st. 12

OR SALE—A nice stout mare, buggy and harness, cheap. Apply 1212 1/2 N. Grand av. 12

DR SALE—bargain. 1314 N. 10th street. 12
 DR SALE—Four good work horses, 2 wagons and 1 harness for sale. Call 361-1111. 12
 DR SALE—A fine two-seated survey for one or two horses use, at a bargain. Call at 703 N. 56th st. 12
 DR SALE—A large size pony, buggy and harness for sale. Call for city directory or motor. 301 S. 12
 DR SALE—New tea-party Brewster, spring (spring) can be seen to-day. Chas. E. Brewster, 301 S. 12
 DR SALE—One 3-seat survey, or will exchange for a car. Call 361-1111. 12
 FANTED—Situation by boy of 19 to learn good trades. Can bring good reference. Address this office. 42
 DR SALE—One two horse platform spring wagon for sale. Inquire at Butler's livery stable, 7 Easton ave. 12
 DR SALE—Small pony for children; very gentle and obedient. Address: St. Andrew's, Windsor Park, Vandeventer ave. 12

[illegible]

ARTIES wishing to exchange or purchase vehicle or harness of any kind will save time and money by calling a call. J. F. Seiberling, 115 S. Broadway STAMENTS—To buy or rent, one-horse platform stake wagon. J. F. Seiberling & Co., 115 S. 11th.
 We have the largest and finest stock of cut-and-
 and jump-springs, saddles, harnesses, collars, spindles and storm wagons, also blackboards and a large stock of new and second-hand of any reputable house in the West. We also have a large stock of new and second-hand laundry, milk and all kinds of open and top heavy wagon trucks. We are also agents for celebrated Collins' range of McCABE, Young & Co.,
 1225 S. Broadway.
STORM BUGGIES.
 finest style, best quality, home-made, low prices.
 EMBREE-MCLEAN CARRIAGE CO.,
 Factory, No. 1617 to 1625 Olive st.

CARRIAGE REPAIRS.

Now is the time to have your pleasure vehicles re-dressed and painted for use the coming season. Our facilities for repainting the product of any factory are guaranteed. We send for and deliver work free of charge. Tel. 10779.

Wm. A. Wright & Son, Carriage Co.
Washington st. and 19th st.

REAL ESTATE BUYERS

"GET THE BEST."

As the stock runs low and the list of offerings to pick from grows smaller it is certainly unexpected that we have it so "beautifully less," but look at it and see if it is not the case here. We have left:

Our Abridged Bargains

For Investors.

For Builders.

Southwest Corner Garrison Avenue and North Market Street—A block of Flats and Stores, permanently occupied and under very low rents, bringing $3,600 per annum. This property is new, well-built and attractive in appearance. We will sell it for $27,000. It pays 12 per cent net on this price, or 20 per cent net on the equity.

Near Corner of Vandeventer Avenue and Morgan Street—95x155 feet solid ground, 80-foot street, alley, sewer, granite sidewalk all made; reached by the principal three electric and cable lines. We are actually ASHAMED TO PRINT THE LOW PRICE WE ARE WILLING TO take for this lot.

BUT WE ARE understood business made such a cut in the last of the list.

Closing Out! and following a well-principle, we have prices as MUST SELL

PURITAN REALTY COMPANY,
47, 48 and 49 Turner Building.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.
One of the

BEST-BUILT HOUSES
West of Union Avenue.

A Great Bargain.

"IT IS CHEAPER TO BUY THAN TO BUILD."

In offering this house for sale I desire to state that there is nothing CHEAP in it. It is well built FROM THE GROUND UP WITH THE BEST OF everything. It contains 12 rooms, including large reception hall 16x26; has bath, hot and cold water (city service just put in); the lower floors finished in hardwood; open fireplace throughout, with wood mantle, iron fire backs and glassed hearths and fenders; large brick fireplace in hall. The rooms throughout have been newly decorated. Fine cellar, furnace, etc., etc. Lot 200x185, all nicely sodded and terraced, with gravel roadway. Barn, etc. High location, four blocks from Washington Electric, two blocks from Cable (Narrow-Gauge), three blocks from Wabash.

Card to view property MUST be secured at my office.

FRANK OBEAR,
Licensed Real Estate Broker..... Rooms 47, 48, 49, Turner Building

The Next Meeting of the
MT. OLIVE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

No. 2 Will Be Held on Monday, March 23, 1891,

At 8 o'clock p.m., at the office, 609 Chestnut street. Money will be sold for the first time and officers elected that night. Pass books will be ready and issued at the same time.

Attend the meeting if possible and bring all your friends.

F. W. BROCKMANN,
President.
GUS. V. R. MECHIN,
Secretary.

Stores for Lease.

NOS. 303 AND 307 N. SEVENTH ST.
(Near Cupples' large building) the large six-story brick building, fronting 40 feet on the west side of Seventh st. and running through to alley. Will be placed in first-class condition. Has elevators and boilers, also fine fire-proof vault. For shipping facilities it is unsurpassed, being only one block from the freight depots. Will be rented low for a term of five or ten years to responsible tenant.

NORTHWEST CORNER SEVENTH AND CHRISTY AV.
The new seven-story brick building and basement, steam combustion. Will be leased for a term of five or ten years. Has a 25 horse-power dynamo. This is a first-class building in every respect. Elevators will be reconstructed in a first-class manner. Suitable for wholesale business house of any description.

106 N. BROADWAY, new five-story building. One of the best business locations in St. Louis. Can be used for office or stores. Will be leased for a term of five years upon very reasonable terms.

HAMMETT-ANDERSON-WADE, 213 N. Eighth St.

FOREST PARK PLACE

Adjoining Westmoreland Place.

CHOICEST RESIDENCE PROPERTY IN THE CITY.

All Improvements Guaranteed.

Olive Street Cable and Lindell Electric Road Land You on the Ground.

We are offering this property at prices that will yield you a profit in the near future.

RUTLEDGE & HORTON,
801 Locust Street.

PERCY & VALLAT,

115 N. 8th St.

Telephone, No. 410.

FOR RENT—DWELLINGS.

DWELLINGS.

QUEEN ANNE HOUSE.

1325 ST. ANGE AV.—10 rooms, all conveniences. 40 00

3321 ST. ANGE AV.—8 rooms, all conveniences. 22 50

26 NICHOLSON PL.—10 rooms and all modern conveniences. 60 00

2023 WALNUT ST.—10 rooms, all modern conveniences. 35 00

510 BROADWAY—8 rooms and all modern conveniences. 35 00

26 S. 10TH ST.—10 rooms, all improvements. 30 00

1317 GRATTAN ST.—8 rooms, all improvements. 35 00

3242 OLIVE ST.—10 rooms. 45 00

2100-02 RANDOLPH ST.—9 rooms and all improvements. 40 00

4118 WASHINGTON AV.—8 rooms, hall, gas, bath and w.c. closets. 40 00

FLATS.

1431 WRIGHT ST.—5 rooms, 2d floor, all conv., separate entrance. 16 00

402 S. 3D ST.—3 rooms, 1st floor. 12 00

22 S. 20TH ST.—3 rooms, 1st floor. 11 00

904 S. 4TH ST.—3 rooms, 2d floor, 1st floor. 18 00

2339 S. 4TH ST.—4 rooms, all imp., 1st floor. 22 50

16 N. LEFFINGWELL AV.—3 rooms, 2d floor, all conveniences. 20 00

1416 FRANKLIN AV.—3 rooms, 2d floor, year. 9 00

910 LAFAYETTE AV.—1st floor, 8 rooms, all improvements. 8 00

1711 CASS AV.—3 rooms, 1st floor. 22 50

1408 CASS AV.—3 rooms, 1st floor. 11 00

STORES.

910 MARKET ST.—Large store. 25 00

906 S. 4TH ST.—Large store and cellar. 40 00

604 S. 4TH ST.—Large store and cellar. 25 00

1420 CHOUTEAU AV.—Store and cellar. 25 00

3748 PAGE AV.—Store, stable and 4 rooms, bath, etc. 40 00

1619 PARK AV.—Store and cellar. 22 50

FOR RENT

—BY—

GREEN & LA MOTTE

S. E. Cor. 8th and Chestnut sts.

3530 Pine st., 3-story stone front, 10 rooms and laundry, hall, gas, bath and furnace. 25 00

3528 Laclede av., 2-story stone-front and mansard 10-room dwelling; all modern improvements. 45 00

518 West End st., 2-story brick, stable and manure, 8 rooms; half block from Olive st. 25 00

3419 Pine st., 2-story brick and mansard, 8 rooms and laundry, furnace, electric bells, etc. 25 00

1217 N. Garrison st., 2-story brick, stable and manure, hot and cold water, furnace and attic, 8 rooms, bath and laundry. 25 00

2208 S. Jefferson av., 2-story stone-front and mansard, 8 rooms and laundry, front and side entrance; house in good condition. 25 00

3142 Shenandoah st., 2-story 8-room brick dwelling, front and side entrance, porch, stable and cow shed; 51-foot lot. 25 00

1735 Delmar st., 2-story brick, 6 rooms and laundry, hall, gas and bath. 25 00

328 S. 9th st., 3-story brick, 10 rooms, hall, gas and bath. 25 00

2811 Adams st., 2-story brick, 8 rooms and 2-story brick stable. 25 00

1628 Pine st., 2-story brick, 8 rooms, hall, gas, bath. 25 00

1227 N. 14th st., 2-story brick, 8 rooms; hall, gas and bath. 25 00

612 Carr st., 2-story brick building, 2 rooms and stable. 25 00

1128 Collins st., 2-story brick, 8 rooms. 25 00

1223 Chestnut st., 3-story brick, 13 rooms; hall, gas and bath. 25 00

112 S. 18th st., 3-story brick, 10 rooms. 25 00

STORES.

626-628 N. Main st., 4-story building, cellar facing on Commercial st., and sub-basement. 45 00

178 N. Main st., 4-story building. 45 00

615 Franklin st., 4-story building. 45 00

6410 S. Broadway, store and building. 25 00

308 N. Commercial st., store. 25 00

ROOMS.

1408 S. Compton av., 3 rooms, 2d floor. 25 00

1335 St. Charles st., 3 rooms, 2d floor. 25 00

210 N. 8th st., 3 rooms, 3d floor, hall, bath and gas. 25 00

4245 Finney av., 4 rooms, 2d floor, hall, bath and gas. 25 00

36440 Page av., new flat, 7 rooms. 25 00

1010 Pine st., 5 rooms, 2d and 3d floors, newly papered and whitened. 25 00

1800 Olive st., 5 rooms, 2d and 3d floors, hall, gas, electric bells. 25 00

2620 Dickson st., 5 rooms, 1st floor, hall, gas, laundry and yard. 25 00

1534 Olive st., large corner flat, 4 rooms, 2d floor, all conveniences. 25 00

FLATS.

3400 Lindell av., large corner store and cellar. 50 00

1816 Pine st., 2 large rooms. 25 00

1830 Olive st., large store, in good order, with basement. 25 00

3651-57 Easton av., 4 new stores, with cellar. 18 00

216 N. 9th st., near Olive, desirable offices, 2d and 3d floors. 25 00

1000-10 Pine st., new stores, just completed. 45 00

501 Pine st., 3-story corner brick. 35 00

2900 Montgomery st., large corner store with 2 rooms above, bath, etc.; good brick stable; desirable corner. 25 00

4258 Evans av., a two-story six-room brick; built by Stephen DeLille, at 4189 Evans av. 25 00

4288 Evans av., a two-story six-room brick; owned by Frank S. La Barge, at 4242A Evans av. 25 00

FINE FLATS.

4338-4340 Evans av.—Handsome new two-story flats; rent for about $1,000 per year. Price only $9,000. See F. S. La Barge, 4242A Evans av. 25 00

J. T. DONOVAN & CO., 513 N. 6th St.

FOR RENT—DWELLINGS.

CHEAP RENT.

4 detached 10-room houses near Lafayette Park; furnaces, electric bells, everything; rent one-half what you pay in West End.

JOHN BYRNE, JR., & CO., 618 Chestnut st.

SUBURBAN PROPERTY FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—At Benton Station, 7-room house, large and stable, etc.; very convenient to depot. Apply to W. W. Daily, 704 Pine.

TO LET FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES.

320 LOCUST ST.—Good store; good front. Apply at 322 Locust st.

613 PINE ST.—New new office; steam heat. KEELLY & CO., 1113 Chestnut st.

1113 CHESTNUT ST.—Large rear office, plenty of light. KEELLY & CO., 1113 Chestnut st.

1705 PARK AV.—Fine house, 18 rooms, hall, bath, gas, suitable for a boarding-house or hotel. KEELLY & CO., 1113 Chestnut st.

2101 MARKET ST.—New new corner store, suitable for saloon, grocery or drug store. KEELLY & CO., 1113 Chestnut st.

2629 CHESTNUT ST.—New brick stable, suitable for carriage and 2 horses or 4 horses. 17

FOR RENT—A workshop. 1113 Glasgow av. 17

FOR RENT—Office, cor. St. Charles and 3d st., ground floor. Apply 507 N. 3d st.

FOR RENT—Shed, gas, and in first-class order. 1018 N. Main st., corner Walnut and 2 rooms. 17

FOR RENT—One basement room, cheap; for whitener or other business. 1713 N. 12th st. 17

FOR RENT—Two offices suitable for doctors or dentists under Hotel West, Grand Ave. 17

FOR RENT—Corner store; new building, suitable for clothing store, with rooms. Cor. 15th and Chambers sts. 17

FOR RENT—Store—11th st., one block north of Washington av., suitable for storage, manufacturing or other business; rent low; see notice on building for particulars. 17

FOR RENT—2800 Franklin av., cor. Leffingwell. This large store and rooms above, in a good location, well adapted to a good tenant. All the latest improvements, nice veranda in front; all in very best of order and condition; lot 50x200. Telephone 752. 508 Chestnut st.

TO RENT—Desk room at 708 Chestnut st. DORAN & CO., 708 Chestnut st.

WANTED—Situation by a widow to keep house 47 cent. Address G 19, this office.

FOR RENT.

No. 113 N. 6th st., for light manufacturing purposes. For particulars call on CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

OFFICES FOR RENT.

We have some very desirable offices in Temple Building, corner Broadway and Walnut st., for rent, single or in suits, and ask parties desiring first-class offices to call on us. LANCASTER & TIERNAN, 202 N. 8th st.

FOR RENT—STORES.

527 Franklin av., corner of 8th st., ground floor. 707 Chouteau av.—Store and three rooms above. 1018 N. Main st., corner Walnut and 2 rooms. 116 S. Commercial—3-story, back to Levee. See other stores, office of J. T. DONOVAN & CO., 513 N. 6th st.

ADDINGTON HALL.

17TH AND OLIVE.

Seating Capacity Over 500.

For rent for lodges, receptions, entertainments, lectures and concerts. Splendid location. Apartments and furniture exceptional. Apply 17 office Phosphoric Manufacturing Co.

BEST CORNER

—FOR—

RESTAURANT

In Town.

Seventh and St. Charles.

Under Hotel Brunswick. Fixtures for sale.

CHAS. H. BAILEY, 304 N. 7th st.

IMPROVED CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE

COLEMAN ST.—1915-1921, two 2-story 6-room houses arranged into flats; lot 37x120, in fine condition; price $5,500; rent $25 per month. CORNET & ZEHRIG, 110 N. 8th st.

FOR SALE—116 S. 14th st., a 7-room house; party leaving the city. 17

FOR SALE—Flat of 6 rooms nicely furnished; also 8-room house with 50 ft. lot, No. 3129 Morgan st., at a decided bargain, to effect a quick sale. Apply room 409 American Central Building, 6th and Locust sts. 17

FOR SALE—1211 Chambers st., a nice 8-room brick house, arranged for two families; water, gas, bath, etc., at a great bargain. Apply to J. H. HOLSCHEM, 1015 N. 10th st.

FRANKLIN AV.—2726-2728—Two 2-story brick houses, each with 50 ft. lot, No. 3129 Morgan st., at a decided bargain, to effect a quick sale. Apply room 409 American Central Building, 6th and Locust sts. 17

FOR SALE—1441-2-story 8-room brick, with lot 20x109, for $1,700. This property is a bargain. CORNET & ZEHRIG, 110 N. 8th st.

THE "Caledonia" Building & Loan Association, 1 1021 Chestnut st., shares $1 each will pay you a bonus of 7 per cent allowed on deposits. Robert F. Miller, Secy.

WASH ST., 1901-3-5-7 (N. W. corner 19th st.) 2-story 6-room house, with bath, etc.; lot 50x100; order and always rented; rent per year $1,000; price, $10,000. CORNET & ZEHRIG, 110 N. 8th st.

$1,000 WILL BUY 4345 St. Ferdinand st., 3-room cottage. BRADLEY & QUINETTE, 719 Chestnut st.

$1,450 WILL BUY 4516 St. Ferdinand st., neat 3-room frame cottage, lot 25x120, with stable. BRADLEY & QUINETTE, 719 Chestnut st.

$4,200 WILL BUY 4818 Cote Brillant av., 7-room house, lot 25x120. BRADLEY & QUINETTE, 719 Chestnut st.

7379 LUCAS AV.—Very fine stone front, 10 rooms, all modern improvements. 720 Chestnut st.

$720 RENT A YEAR FOR $5500.

Magnificent, north-west corner of Locust and 5-room stock-brick flats, new modern, four sets of rooms; lot 50x100. CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

CENTRAL INVESTMENTS.

We are offering several places of down town business property at low figures.

JOHN BYRNE, JR., & CO., 618 Chestnut st.

Do You Want a Good Investment?

2733 Clark av., 6-room brick; water, bath, gas, etc.; also a 3-room brick on the corner of Locust and 2d st., lot 25x120; price $5,000. CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

3007 LACLEDE AV.—FLATS.

Two-story stock-brick 6 and 8-room modern flats; pay a very good income. Call and see us at once about this good investment. CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

Here's An Elegant Modern Residence.

No. 3638 Finney av., 2-story stone-front and mansard, 10 rooms, with all modern improvements, furnace, etc.; rent for a month, lot 25x120, price, $8,500. CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

3010-12 PARK AV.—FLATS.

Two double flats, 4 and 5 rooms each; total rent, $1,000 a year; lot 35x50. CHAS. H. GLEASON & CO., 720 Chestnut st.

PETER COOPER.

The Peter Cooper Building & Loan Association, have moved their office from the Commercial Building to 718 Chestnut st.

April 1st, a portion of stock will be put on sale Thursday next, the 26th inst.

Persons having idle money can procure 6 per cent interest by placing it with these associations. They have $400,000 loaned—secured by $500,000 of St. Louis real estate. They have over a hundred members and others joining every day.

J. T. DONOVAN & CO., 513 N. 6th St.

FOR RENT—DWELLINGS.

CHEAP RENT.

4 detached 10-room houses near Lafayette Park; furnaces, electric bells, everything; rent one-half what you pay in West End.

17

OD URE

le remedy not discovered. Do-

New York the greatest blood cure Leading Ingredient. As a remedy for months it has no equal, while as a nes and all seasons, it is equally says of the CACTUS as a blood World:

PROOF POSITIVE.

HARLEM, Jan. 28, 1890.
 This certificate that my child, a son of
 I, was afflicted with a very bad skin disease of the face, eyes and inside of the nose.
 The face was covered with matting sore, and his eyes were swollen shut on account of the sores on the eyelids and his nose was discharging matter and was full inside of the nose. The doctor told me to use Blood Cure for two weeks and to-day my baby is entirely well.

MRS. J. KENNY.
 165 East 126th st., New York.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2, 1890.
BRAZILIAN BLOOD SPECIFIC CO. Gentlemen:
 I have used your cure very extensively in practice during the past year, and in the treatment of all diseases of the blood, and have found it an invaluable remedy, and in instances has it failed to effect a permanent and complete cure. I am very truly,
 B. NEWTON, M. D., 221 Dearborn av.

Suggests, or will be sent, express-free. $2: small. $1.

preparation of this name offered at less than regular

N. SPECIFIC CO.,

3, 904 Olive Street, St. Louis.

rk.

essel stands a picture of slave girls in brass aperils blowing long, slender pipes, giving the spirit of Alma Tadema's "Fastime in cient Egypt." A bronze lamp is carried the back of a crocodile. Another, with coping yellow petticoats, has for base a at bronze jar on whose sides are wrought e-reliefs of the labors of Nile boatmen and VACCINATION.

Efficacy and the Need of Revaccination of Adults.

The tendency of small-pox to reappear as epidemic from time to time is noticeable in countries where vaccination prevails in somewhat thoroughly enforced.

We are, then, to infer that vaccination is a ure, as some persons contend by no means; the carefully gathered facts of all kinds prove the reverse. For instance, in the great epidemic in Sheffield, England, four years ago, vaccinated children were seen to twenty times as safe from an attack as the unvaccinated ones. One hundred times liable to a fatal result, says the Youth's companion. Three things, however, seem to be established:

Some persons have a susceptibility to small-pox which is not readily overcome, either by vaccination, or by a previous attack of the disease. A Sister of Charity who had successfully vaccinated in childhood, had a severe attack of small-pox at the age of 3. Four years later she was again successfully vaccinated, and still again in adult life. Persons have been known to take the disease several times.

During an epidemic of small-pox, the ceptibility to it is greatly increased. Persons who, in ordinary circumstances, might be exposed to the disease with little risk, will now take it readily during its prevalence.

Vaccination, as a general fact, loses its protective power after a few years, especially for the adult age. In the Sheffield epidemic of 1891-2, it was found that the safety of that vaccine ated was twelve times as great as that of those who had been vaccinated only once. Every child should be vaccinated in infancy and again at the age, say, of 7. It is safer to repeat the operation again in youth, if an epidemic is prevailing; but in every case it should be repeated after the adult age is reached.

accination should be compulsory. Where voluntary, tens of thousands of persons reject it. In Berlin, under compulsory vaccination and revaccination, deaths from all-pox are less than 3 per cent; in Paris, under voluntary vaccination, they are nearly FRAUSS' Aristotypes are artistic.

FRAUSS' Aristotypes are popular.

Struck With Brass Knuckles.
Thomas McCormack, a porter of the Boston use at No. 409 North Levee, was assaulted by some unknown man about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and severely cut above the eye by his assailant, who used a pair of

LISS Cockroach and Bedbug Terminators. Depot, 1188 Olive St.

FINANCIAL REVIEW.

YESTERDAY CLOSED A WEEK'S DULL AND HEAVY TRANSACTIONS.

The Bankers of the Market Not Yet Ready for a Rise—The Street Still Sensitive to Bear Influences—Business Complications.

New York, March 21.—The feeling among stock operators on the resumption of business last Monday morning was that the market awaited them that promised a large quota of good things during the week. All who knew anything about the share speculation and had a spark of hopefulness in their composition were bullishly inclined, but, like a thousand other anticipations in the past time with reference to the current of the stock market, disappointment was the result. The defeat of the general expectation that the trend of prices would be upward in a pronounced degree, and that as the days passed a broadening and lively condition would replace the long drawn out period of lethargy, was not due to any fresh factor of a vitally depressing character, but chiefly, perhaps, to the desire of those who are supposed to govern the movements to strengthen the situation in every possible way before inaugurating a vigorous rise. The character of the week who are thought to be under the market is such that few believe that any spot with a tendency to pronounced weakness will be left unguarded.

It was not pleasant of course for the rank and file who have cast their lot on the purchase side of the account to see the brilliant opening followed by a steady shrinkage in the volume of business and a return to stagnation, but even this is better than a false start that would run just long enough to bring in the outsiders and then flatten out and leave affairs in a worse condition than before. Operators should remember that less than six months ago this market was in a state bordering on a general panic, with London completely demoralized. Notwithstanding the heroic efforts made to straighten out the financial complications and the success which has been obtained, the stock markets of the world are still unusually sensitive to any news that carries a tinge of uneasiness, and this is really the cement that is slowly and surely building a stout foundation on which to make a greatly improved market. The Nebraska senate has killed the 2-cent per mile passenger bill and is in a deadlock over the maximum freight measure.

The Minnesota Legislature, however, is making some progress in the way of passing anti-railway laws. Although a bill was introduced in the Illinois Legislature compelling a 2-cent passenger rate it will hardly become a law. The Chicago and Alton to settle their mileage ticket wrangle. Another point gained was the abolishment of unlimited tickets between Chicago and St. Louis after March 31, and now there are no possible all the unlimited tickets will be done away with in the West. All through the week there were rumors of underhand rate cutting in different sections and some prominent lines were charged with secretly evading their pledges, but many of these reports could not find confirmation.

THE DAY'S BUSINESS.
Last night the talk was very bearish, and the bank statement was held up as a bugaboo. Instead of a soft market there was considerable general strength and improvement in prices wherever changes occurred from last night. Ontario & Western rose 1/2 per cent, when the market resumed its usual intense dullness and remained for the rest of the hour entirely barren of features. The bank statement was not against the market, as it showed but $750,000 decrease in reserves, with $4,700,000 increase in loans and $5,400,000 increase in deposit. The market closed in pretty fair shape, with Northwestern up, Rock Island and St. Paul each 1/2 up, Lake Shore and Erie showing slight gains. Sales for the half day were 45,000 shares.

THE LIST.
The following figures show the highest, lowest and closing prices:

STOCKS.
	Highest.	Lowest.	Closing.
American Cotton Oil Trust.....	42 1/2	42	42 1/2
Chicago and Great Western.....	72 1/2	72 1/4	72 1/2
Chicago Trust.....	72 1/2	72 1/4	72 1/2
Adair Trust.....	72 1/2	72 1/4	72 1/2
Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.....	105 1/2	105 1/4	105 1/2
Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and North Western, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and North Western.....	64 1/2	64 1/4	64 1/2
St. Paul, common.....	64 1/2	64 1/4	64 1/2
St. Paul, preferred.....	64 1/2	64 1/4	64 1/2
Union Pacific.....	64 1/2	64 1/4	64 1/2
Missouri Pacific.....	44 1/2	44 1/4	44 1/2
Illinois Central.....	44 1/2	44 1/4	44 1/2
North American Co.....	11 1/2	11 1/4	11 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. C. & St. Louis.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, preferred.....	69 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2
Chicago and St. Louis, common.....	69

happy man as a remedy for a seemingly incurable ailment. When, after a long and fruitless search of his kingdom, the monarch found a happy man, that fortunate being was so poor that he had no shirt.
A rich man gains independence in one life and loses it in another. He becomes not bring happiness than one day at Newport," said Austin Corbin, the millionaire banker and President of the Reading Railroad. "I had been tooling along the fashionable drive scanning the faces of the passers-by. All were evidently bored to death. The ladies, arrayed in richest carriages and toilets, seemed afraid to look at me lest they should disarrange their apparel. Not a ripple of a good suit for yourself for $4.50. If you like paying $12.50 to $25 you can get the best in the land at the GLOBE, 709 to 713 Franklin Avenue.

You Can

must also propel the athlete forward for the leap. Referring to the divisions previously mentioned of a 48-foot leap, step and jump, a further explanation of how an athlete, after hopping 19 feet, can only step 13 feet, is that the hopping leg, having so much to do to prevent the athlete from sinking to the males woman would be incomplete without the presence of an incense burning lamp. In one of these lamps cologne water may be burned and it gives a very delightful perfume, far preferable to that given by some of the pot-pourri jars which are still fashionable.

Full measure and absolute purity.
Costing no more, are much cheaper to use.

INSIST UPON HAVING BURNETT'S.

INSIST UPON HAVING BURNETT'S.

FAMOUS SPRING OPENING 1891

OF MEN'S, YOUTHS' AND BOYS' Fashionable and Artistic CLOTHING!

A Modern Exposition of Style and Fabric Unequalled in the World.

THE GRANDEST STOCK EVER SHOWN UNDER ONE ROOF!

POINTS IN WHICH WE EXCEL:

Elegance and Variety of Assortment.
Superior Finish and High Quality.
Lowest Prices of Any Establishment in the World.

APPRECIATING the demands of the public for a higher grade of clothing, we this season place before the consumer a line of goods superior, in make, finish and fabric, to anything ever attempted by a Western establishment, equaling in all respects the productions of the most fashionable and artistic tailors. Our orders for fine woolsens were placed months ago and the best tailored skill in America used in their construction. The result has been a grand collection of Suits and Garments of such pleasing variety, exclusive style and artistic detail as will please the most careful and critical dressers.

As a special trade mark, guaranteeing the superior quality and finish of our best grades of Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's Clothing the following brand will be found attached to the above class of suits and garments, indicating that they are fully equal in all respects to the work of the highest class tailors and drapers.

A Word About Spring Styles.

The Sack Suit, always a popular spring and summer style, presents a variety of new and pleasing shapes. The double breasted, with soft roll, to be worn open or closed according to the taste of the wearer, being the most pronounced. Other very popular and attractive makes are the soft roll open and straight front, and the one, three and four-button cutaway sacks. The majority of these suits, and there are hundreds of patterns in every variety of fine worsteds, cassimeres and electric blues, are silk faced, have best Italian linings, with buttons to match fabric. Prices, $5 to $25.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

Another popular style for business or street wear is the Three-Button Cutaway Frock. Many made with soft rolling lappels; other styles in one and four-button; the fabrics embrace a rich variety of the finest worsteds and cassimeres; the workmanship, trimming and fit being of the highest class. Prices, $8.50 to $30.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

The Prince Albert Suit, always in favor as a dress suit, holds its own as the leading style par excellence. We show an elegant line, made up in best imported corkscrews, English crepes and Clay worsteds; full silk lined and equal in cut, trimming and finish to the finest made-to-measure work. Prices, $18.50 to $35.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

Spring Overcoats. Our line includes medium and substantial grades from $8.50 up to $12.50 and from $15 to $25. Our celebrated Eiffel Tower brand in all the fine tailored novelties, silk lined and faced, box, half box and medium lengths, in imported Kerseys, Meltons, Cassimeres and Thibets in all the popular shades.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

Men's and Youths' Trousers. This important stock is so extensive and diversified in its character that an extended description is impossible. We show hundreds of attractive patterns in the latest spring styles in fine all-wool cassimeres and worsteds ranging in price from $2.50 to $6.50. Perfect fitting and finely tailored.

OUR BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Is so well known and patronized by the parents and guardians of St. Louis and vicinity that it will be interesting to know that this season we have exceeded all former efforts, and place before the public a comprehensive stock of unparalleled variety and excellence, embracing all the leading and popular novelties in Knee-Pant Suits ($1.50 to $10), Jersey Suits ($3 to $7.50), Knee-Pant Vest Suits ($4 to $12.50), Kilts ($2.50 to $8.50), and Long-Pant Suits ($3.50 to $20), and Boys' and Children's Pants in endless variety. An extended description would be impossible. We can only say "The Grandest Spring Stock in America is open for your inspection." Come see it.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

FAMOUS SHOE & CLOTHING COMPANY,

Open Till 10 P. M. Saturdays.

Send for our Spring Catalogue.

Broadway and Morgan.

PRINCE ALBERT SUITS

In Imported Clay Worsteds, Corkscrews and English Crepes, $18.50 to $35.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

SPRING STYLES IN SACK SUITS,

Immense Variety, $5 to $25.

CUTAWAY FROCK SUITS,

All the Spring Novelties, $8.50 to $30.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

SPRING OVERCOATS.

All the Popular Styles. An Unequalled Assortment.

$8.50 to $25.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

SUITS FOR STOUT MEN.

Special Lines in All the Leading Styles.

$10 to $25.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

BOYS' LONG-PANT SUITS.

(Up to 18 Years of Age.)

A Complete and Elegant Assortment, Embracing All the Novelties in Medium and Fine Grades, $8.50 to $20.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

CHILDREN'S JERSEY SUITS.

Lovely Styles, Elegant Designs for Spring.

$8.50 to $7.50.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

BOYS' KNEE-PANT SUITS.

THE FAVORITE STOCK OF THE WEST.

Choicest Designs, Latest Styles.

2-Piece Jacket and Pant Suits, $1.50 to $10.

3-Piece Jacket, Pant and Vest Suits, $4 to $12.50.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

CHILDREN'S KILT SUITS.

Foreign and American Novelties in Lovely Spring Fashions.

$2.50 to $9.50.

Ask for Our Celebrated Eiffel Tower Brand.

FAMOUS' GRAND SPRING OPENING

Boys', Misses' and Children's Shoes. Lowest Prices.

SHOES

For All Mankind. $250,000 Stock to Select From.

BEST GRADES at the LOWEST PRICES

A FEW OF OUR LEADING SPRING STYLES:

LADIES' Cloth-Top Button, five styles of last, tips or plain, $2.50

LADIES' Cloth-Top Princess, front lace, eight styles of last, single pump or double soles, hand-sewed, $3.50 to $5

LADIES' Bright Dongola Button, all shapes of heel, toe or last, city made, many styles, $2.00

LADIES' Best French Dongola Button, six styles of last, heels or spring heels, $3.00

Ladies' Princess Front Lace. "The Latest Out."

MEN'S Spring Style Silk, Satin and Serge-Top Lace and Congress, shoemakers' price, $12. Our price, $5 to $7.50

MEN'S Best American Calf, hand-welt, the best shoe on earth for the price, $3.00

MEN'S Best Kangaroo, in Lace, Congress and Button, hand-sewed. Our price, $5.00

MEN'S Calf, Congress and Bals., all the latest styles, a splendid shoe for the money. $2.50

Gents' Patent Leather Congress.

Our Ladies' Dep't
The "Gem of the West."

The largest and most elegantly fitted Shoe Store in the world. All the latest London, Paris, Vienna and American Novelties for Spring Wear now in stock.

CLOAK DEP'T.

Good all-wool well-made Stockinet Jackets, black, at $1.25.

Good all-wool tailor-made, bound, raised shoulders Stockinet Jackets, black, $2.25.

Good black cloth Blazer Jackets, splendid shape, $2.00.

Fine black diagonal worsted Blazer Jacket, tailor made, $3.75. See cut.

Fine tan imported cloth Blazer Jacket, tinsel cord edge and tassel cord, a great bargain at $4.50.

Fine camel's hair Blazer, elaborately embroidered in gold on collar and cuff, all shades. The best $5 garment ever offered.

Blue Cloth Blazer, half lined with satin and embroidered with gold on full rolling collar, $5.

Our $5 Reefer Jacket, made of cloth or cheviot, has an unsurpassable fit and worth for the price.

Fine cloth Reefer, in all shades, the collar embroidered in silk in the latest patterns, at $5.75.

Fine cloth Blazer Jacket with detachable vest, a beautiful style at $7.50.

Best Clay Worsted Blazer, with cord or tassel, half lined with best silk, cord edge at $9.75; the above with detachable vest at $11.

Another new style is the Tuxedo Coat, made of the finest cloth cheviot, full rolling collar, faced with silk, at $10.00.

We are showing a full line of wrap shape Capes, the latest style and a large stock of Connemaras; $4.95 and upwards.

We have many styles of fine Novelty Jackets (one of a kind), which are confined exclusively to us.

See our $1 Children's Reefers, from 6 to 12 years, all colors, in good shades and patterns.

Our $1.50 Children's Reefer is the best in the land for the price; all the different shades.

Our confirmation Dresses are a source of pleasure to interested mothers, $2.50 and upwards.

A neat stylish challie Tea Gown, assorted patterns with Fedora fronts of contrasting colors, $1.75; half lined at $2.50.

Shirt Waists and Shirts, laundered bosom, will be the rage this season. We are showing them in Percales and Penangs, Madras, Oxfords, Botany cloth, Silks and all other stylish materials. They fit beautifully.

Men's Furnishing Goods Dep't.

AN UNAPPROACHABLE STOCK OF NEW ELEGANT SPRING STYLES.

Gents': Dress: Shirts.

200 doz. Gents' Fine Unlaundered Dress Shirts, fine all linen bosom, well made and full size, regular price 75c; Cut Price..... 50c

75 dozen Gents' Fine Unlaundered Dress Shirts, all linen bosom, open front, 16 small plaits in bosom, Special Price This Week, at 65c

100 dozen Gents' Fine Dress Shirts, laundered, perfect fitting, well made, shield bosom, band at wrist, in all sizes; Special Cut Price..... 75c

50 dozen Gents' Fine Dress Shirts, laundered, puff bosom, plain or with white or colored polka spots; just out for spring, 1891, at..... $1.50

1000 dozen Gents' Night Robes, in all the latest novelties, 25 styles to pick from; range of prices, 50c to $5.00 Each

500 dozen Gents' Overshirts, sateen, fancy stripes, all new, competitors' price, $1.25; Our Price..... 75c

300 dozen Gents' Overshirts, Fancy Madras Cloth, warranted fast colors, all new, sold by other houses at $2.00; Our Price, $1.50

150 dozen Gents' Fine Shirts, Imported French Flannel, will not shrink, regular price, $3.25; Cut Price..... $2.00

400 dozen Boys' Fine Shirt Waists, fancy dark blue, for all ages, competitors' price, 50c; Our Price, 35c; 3 for $1.00

2000 dozen Gents' New Teck Scarfs, all silk, nobby styles, light and dark, regular value 50c and 35c; Your Pick at 25c

3000 Fine All-Silk Umbrellas, for ladies' or gents' use, 26 or 28 inch, with fine Gold or Silver Caps, Crooks or Rings, 150 styles to pick from; Range of Prices, $2.00 to $15.00

BEST FURNISHINGS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

2 cases Gents' Undershirts or Drawers, Balbriggan, French neck, all silk bound, in all sizes, A Flyer at 50c Each

3 cases Gents' Fine Real Lisle Thread Undershirts or Drawers to match, dark tan, warranted fast colors, in all sizes, 30 to 44; regular value, $1.50 each; Go at $1.00 Each Socks! Socks! Socks!

1000 dozen Men's Fine Cotton Socks, Imported, full regular made, warranted fast colors, drabs, tans and black, worth 35c a pair; Special Price, 25c a pair, or six pair for $1.25

500 dozen Gents' Heavy Socks, cotton, seamless knit, double heels and toes, tan shades, best for wear, regular price 20c; Special at..... 13c

Boys, Note This.

200 dozen Boys' Hose, made of 6 thread heavy cotton, ribbed, stained black, sizes 7 to 10, double heels and toes, worth 40c, at..... 25c a pair

50 dozen Youths' Fine Undershirts, Fine Madras Cloth, warranted fast colors, all the go for Spring, 1891, worth $1.25, go at..... 75c

25 dozen Youths' Undershirts, Fine Imported French Flannel, fancy stripes, sizes 12 to 14½, worth $2.00 Go at $1.35

150 dozen Boys' Fine Dress Shirts, unlaundered, fine linen bosoms, perfect fitting, 16 plaits in bosom, open fronts, worth 85c, go at..... 65c

HATS!

SPRING STYLES OF 1891.

Largest and Most Complete Stock Shown in the West!

UNAPPROACHABLE

In Quality, Style and Low Prices.

Everything in Fashionable Headwear for Gents, Young Men, Boys and Children.

SEE OUR $3.00 STIFF GREAT HAT.

Spring Style. It Can't Be Beat!

FAMOUS HATS

OUR DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT!

SPRING NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS.

Special Drives:

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

Black Henrietta, 36-inch wide 19c

Black Henrietta, 40-inch wide, all wool, silk finished 65c

Black Striped Henrietta, all wool, silk finished, 40 inches wide 90c

Black Henrietta, 46-inch wide, silk finished, a regular $1.25 goods, as an opening item $1.00

COLORED DRESS GOODS.

46-inch all-wool Serge in all the new spring shades, purchased to sell for 85c, as an opening item 68c

40-inch all-wool plaid and striped "Novelty" Suitings in all the latest spring shades and very tony, purchased to sell at 65c, as an opening item 50c

40-inch all-wool colored Henrietta, any shade you want; purchased to sell at 60c, as an opening item 48c

48-inch Debeige in plain and fancy styles, purchased to sell for 50c, as an opening item 39c

46-inch Henrietta Cloth in all colors, purchased to sell at 50c, as an opening item 39c

Spring Novelties in Gloves, Underwear, Corsets, Hosiery, Etc.

LOWEST PRICES IN AMERICA!

LARGEST OUTFITTING ESTABLISHMENT IN THE WORLD.

Send for Our Spring Catalogue.

BROADWAY AND MORGAN, ST. LOUIS.

FUN AT A GLANCE.

THE ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING.

THEATRICAL TERMS.
"TORMENTORA."

ANGELS REVERSED—1.
BIDDY—"Bodad, that must be an Injin chafe or a wyger devil!"

ANGELS REVERSED—2.
What Biddy saw.

THE TRAINED MONGREL'S NISHAP.

WAITER (to HAPPY-LOOKING CUSTOMER).—Well, eh, what is it?
HAPPY-LOOKING CUSTOMER (pensively).—Boy, eight-pounder—finest in the land! Looks like me, too!

NOT FOR EARS POLITE.

over (waiting for him in the anteroom)!"—And did you ask papa?"

"No," I did.

"And what did he say?"

"He said, 'Well, Amy, I'd rather not answer. I—I belong to the world, don't you?'"

A POINT OF ETIQUETTE.

"WELL, MISSUS GORDON, AN' HOW DO YEE GET ON WIT YER FOLK 'REHOODERS?"

"Oh, 'TIS WELL. THEY HAVEN'T CALLED ON ME, YET. I SUPPOSE 'THER DO BE WAITIN' FOR ME TO MAKE YER FIRST VISIT!"

A SUGGESTION TO YOUR MARRIED PEOPLE WITH LARGE FAMILIES.

Special Collection

one of the Good Things in "Life," "Puck" and "Judge" Reproduced for the "Sunday Post-Dispatch" Readers.

A Man With Three Arms.

Unusual sight of a man with three arms and hands may be daily seen on the streets of Marquette. British Columbia is a Russian by birth and first came here in 1877 as an attaché of the Greek at Sitka, Alaska, where he resided 20 years. He is a large, powerfully built man, but seems to have no control of this extra bodily member, which hangs down his back from a point almost exactly between his shoulders and rolls from side to side in an unobtrusively mannered way. Besides being well equipped in the way of arms, he has a set of teeth that are double all the way around. It is hardly necessary to add that the deformity of his teeth does not detract from a naturally ferocious looking countenance. Notwithstanding his wicked appearance he is a mild mannered, Christian gentleman.

Men's $3.50 Shoes, $2.50.

Hand-sewed French calf shoes worth $7 at $2.50. 701 N. Franklin st.

STRANGE SIGHTS THAT ARE SEEN BY INVESTIGATORS OF THE MAGIC GLASS.

was engaged there during the greater part of my life. This intelligence was to the last degree unexpected, for my friend is a married woman, who has never studied music in any but amateur style, and who, according to her own statement, has never even finished her education some years ago. I have since ascertained that she in fact carries a portfolio corresponding with the sketch I have just described, and that the only explanation given of this is that the gaser was mistaken, that she had heard casually of her friend's newly-awakened interest in music, and that she had been desirous to show this Jewish friend. The fact that the portfolio which she had seen was similar to that given by the crystal is explained as a coincidence, and the gaser's error is accounted for in other way out of the difficulty is by referring the whole thing to telepathic influence—that the thought transference. I was sitting at the dining table in the hall: "On the evening of March 11, being tired, I was about to go early to my room, when it occurred to me to wait for the last post, already late, that I might not be again in the hall, and I might be obliged to leave my room. I took up the crystal rather to pass away the time than with much expectation of seeing anything; for, as a rule, when one directed the concentration of attention necessarily fails to attain. However, I perceived a white object on a dark ground, soon becoming more clearly defined as a letter in a very large envelope, the edges of which were not sufficiently strong to hold the contents. I saw the envelope of ordinary size, lying flat at the top, concealed the address, and the writing on the smaller one was too much obscured to be legible. I was not at all ordinary one, or I might have applied the test of the magnifying glass, which is sometimes, though not always, of use in such cases. I thought it possible that the vision might be a reflection of the letter, but I was not at least worth while, after making a note of the fact—my invariable rule whenever possible—to test its significance. As a matter of fact, the letters were lying on a seat in the hall, showing the address, and the post was a flushed wood—placed there, possibly, by someone leaving the house, who had met the postman before he had time to ring. The letters were in a small envelope, the size of a sheet of letter paper not folded, and was for myself, the paper one the usual size of a note and not for another, which may have accounted for my impression that the letter was mine."

The question here is, did the two letters come in the last post? Were not they on the seat in the hall when the lady passed through earlier in the evening. If so it was merely a coincidence. If not then it was a most incredible prevision.

LATENT MEMORY.
These examples are given by Max Desoir, a German investigator, in a recent number of a philosophical magazine. The mirror has been variously explained as of magical power such as can call out the latent facts of memory or prevision, or as a devil's toy which can be used only by those possessed by the devil. Hypnotism has been called upon to explain the phenomenon. But these explanations are all pointing one way to explain "Hypnotism" and "masked somnambulism" are nothing but words thrown in to cover destitution of knowledge. It would be quite as present our present with reflections of the past and forecasts of the future. And we can make that which we call confessions the idle fancies of an idle brain, for they are reminders of what we actually are, they notify us that we were once upon a time, from our past, and that every thought which we have permitted to enter the mind is there recorded and filed away for reference. Let people be careful of what they are saying, for the words they take up a permanent abode in the mind, and becomes, in fact, a necessary part of the mind, and they will guard with all the care they can against the admission of error and falsehood.

[illegible]

Love's Magic Gift.
from the Woman's Tribune.
Two little Loves with golden heads
Went forth in early morn;
They passed a wondrous tale, and cold,
Who turned from them in scorn;
But yet they loved the woman fair,
And one bright little Love,
Took his dear charge, and with his own
Made her his own, and his own own.

From off his breast—above.
He reached, held out to her with smiles,
A sparkling, glittering gem.
"Leave me," she said. "I want it not;
You're sick of Love, and I am too."
Drooping, the cherub sped away,
But, lo! the other one Flew forth into a debt of tears by Where shone the morning sun,
And raising from its fragrant home
In robes of purple hue,
A dark-eyed pansy in his hand,
Back to the woman came.
With eyes averted, proud, she stood
And coldly would not see Till the gem shone in her hand
"I've brought 'hearts—ease' to thee,"
Then warmth, like sun, stole in her eyes
The flower clasped her breast;
In her proud arms she raised the Love,
And its golden curls she kissed.
Poor cherub with the glittering gem
Sped in the distance far,
And hearts—ease with weary breast
Where falls a jeweled star.

—[REXENA MAY IVORY,

FOR SCROFULA
scrofulous humor
in the blood,
ulcers, catarrh, and

consumption,
use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

The most economical,
safe, speedy, and effective of all blood-purifiers.

Has Cured Others
will cure you.

FOR SCROFULA

scrofulous humor
in the blood,
ulcers, catarrh, and
consumption,
use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

The most economical,
safe, speedy, and
effective of all
blood-purifiers.

Has Cured Others
will cure you.